

NOMINATE TODAY; PLATFORM ADOPTED

"LOOK OUT FOR U. S. FIRST" IS LEAGUE STAND

Makes No Pledge on Treaty Action.

The text of the Republican platform will be found on page 6.

Following the sudden collapse of Murray Crane's fight for the league of nations, the Republican party platform was rushed to completion and laid before the national convention with the virtually unanimous recommendation of the resolutions committee early last evening.

Essence of the Platform.

The outstanding features of the platform as adopted are in brief: Complete avoidance of any pledge to ratify the treaty of peace and the league of nations with or without reservations.

Firm Mexico Policy.

Sweeping denunciation of President Wilson's watchful waiting policy in Mexico and a pledge to enforce the laws and consistent policy for the protection of American lives and property everywhere.

Approval of the act of congress aiding soldiers and sailors, but avoiding the soldiers' bonus issue.

How Compromise Was Reached.

The writing of the platform was completed at 5:25 yesterday afternoon, after the resolutions committee had held a session nearly all day.

Turns Balance Against Crane.

But Senator Lodge was pacific and at the crucial minute of the apparent impasse suddenly threw his influence on the side of compromise and turned the balance against his old colleague, Mr. Crane.

Those who watched the proceedings of the early morning give due credit to "saving the break" in the G. O. P. to Mr. Lodge and to Senators McCormick and Borah, as joint chief sponsors of the advent of the peace days.

The principal conference leading to specification from Massachusetts and the more outspoken one from Idaho was attended by Mr. Lodge, Mr. Crane, Mr. Miller, George Wharton Pepper, Henry L. Stimson, George Harvey, Senator Borah, Senator Smoot, Senator McClellan, and Senator Brandegee. All the discussion revolved about

COMPROMISE ON LEAGUE AS ADOPTED

Following is the text of the platform planks stating the position of the Republican party on the general foreign policy of the nation and the league of nations and peace treaty:

We favor a liberal and generous foreign policy founded upon definite moral and political principles, characterized by clear understanding of and firm adherence to our own rights, and unfailing respect for the rights of others. We should afford full and adequate protection for the life, liberty, and property, and all international rights of every American citizen, and should require a proper respect for the American flag; but we should be equally careful to manifest a just regard for the rights of other nations. A scrupulous observance of our international engagements, when lawfully assumed, is essential to our own honor and self-respect and the respect of other nations. Subject to a due regard for international obligations, we should leave our country free to develop its civilization along lines most conducive to the welfare and happiness of the people, and to cast its influence on the side of justice and right should occasion require.

The Republican party stands for agreement among the nations who preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide methods which shall maintain the rule of public right by the development of law and the decision of impartial courts, and which shall secure instant and general international conference whenever peace shall be threatened, so that the nations pledged to do and insist upon what is just and fair may exercise their influence and power for the prevention of the war. We believe that all this can be done without the compromise of national independence, without depriving the people of the United States in advance of the right to determine for themselves what is just and fair when the occasion arises, and without involving them as participants, and not as peacemakers in a multitude of quarrels, the merits of which they are unable to judge.

DAY'S CONVENTION—PROGRAM

Session opens with prayer at 9:30 a. m.

Call of roll of states for presentation of candidates for the nomination for president. Ten minute limit on first speeches; 16 minutes on second.

Recess for luncheon at 1 o'clock, resuming oratory at 3 p. m.

First ballot follows conclusion of speeches. Probably balloting once started will proceed without a recess.

A PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE PLATFORM

Ships Shelling Albanians as Romans Flee

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Complete censorship has been established in Italy and in Roumania, according to official advices received here today.

REBELS PERIL AVONIA.

ROME, June 10.—The latest messages from Avonia declare that 15,000 Albanian insurgents, after capturing the hinterland villages of Bestrova, Tepeleni, and Selenteze, are closing in upon Avonia itself. Thus the port is now inaccessible to the Italians except from the sea.

Heavy Firing Results.

Heavy cannonading is going on and naval reinforcement is being hurried from Brindisi and Taranto.

PICKS NEW PREMIER

LONDON, June 10.—King Victor Emmanuel, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome, has asked former Premier Giovanni Giolitti to form a new ministry to replace Premier Nitti's cabinet, which resigned yesterday.

GEN. PORTER, 83, FIGHTS DEATH AS HE FOUGHT WAR

New York, June 10.—[Special.]—Gen. Horace Porter, 83, died at Gen. Grant and former ambassador to France, is making a fight for life after an operation. The general's condition is serious, but at the home he was said: "While he is a very sick man, his condition is fair."

Germany Meets Terms on Reduction of the Army

BERLIN, June 10.—It is announced that the reduction of the German army to 200,000 men has been accomplished. This is in accordance with the Versailles treaty.

PENT UP YELLS BREAK LOOSE AT COLISEUM

Din Greets Party's First Real Work.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

O, how they yelled! The G. O. P. elephant, after ruminating two days in the Coliseum, woke up yesterday afternoon and in the first live session of the week filled three golden hours with continuous trumpeting. From 4:30 to 7:30 the delegates became true sons of nature and made bedlam ring. After which, having adopted a platform, they sought the drug stores for throat lozenges and gargles to get into shape for the "big day" today.

No Hitch on Platform.

The platform went through without a hitch with the name. It rode on a viva voice vote that made the riders ring.

Chicago's city hall and a Wisconsin man sought to create a diversion. After Watson of Indiana finished barytoning the resolutions, Delegate Gross of Wisconsin, a La Follette man, arose with a minority report.

The Badger state was running true to form—hardly a convention passes without it shoving in a minority plank which is invariably tossed out with the "culls."

Delegate Oscar De Priest, delegate from the First Illinois district, who, as a sidekick, was one of Mayor Thompson's floor leaders in the city council, got up with a plank in his hands. It had to do with rigid enforcement of the Fourteenth amendment in southern states.

Up jumped Senator Sherman, who an hour before had supplanted Mayor Thompson as new national committee man.

"Under the rules," he said, "this should be referred to the resolutions committee."

"The point is sustained," held Chairman Lodge, which caused another scale of laughter, inasmuch as the resolutions committee is through with its duties.

The platform was then adopted and the convention adjourned until 9:30 this morning.

CONVENTION WAKES UP

But, as to the details: As usual, on the third day the convention woke up. It tested out its lungs, shed its coats, and thawed into noise and joviality.

Great crowds turned out as the "big day" approached. The Coliseum became an oven. When the afternoon session opened at 4:30 o'clock the great hall was almost a Turkish bazaar. Delineating delegates proceeded to make themselves comfortable. So did the spectators. Westward the tides of democracy flow—the shedding of coats demonstrated the axiom. Metropolitan New York, near the front, kept on its jackets and vests and mopped its foreheads, a martyr to conservatism. Across the aisle Kansas chuckled its coats. In front Colorado was 50 per cent coatless; to the rear, Illinois was the same. New York was an island of perfect form in a sea of shirtlessness.

Old Timers Fall Out.

Senator Lodge cracked down the gavel and ordered the roll of states for the names of the next national committee. Many an old timer fell out by the way as the call progressed.

John T. King dropped out as committee man from Connecticut.

The delegates and the galleries made the welkin ring when Senator L. Y. Sherman was announced as committee man from Illinois, supplanting Mayor Thompson. Wave after wave of yells and shouts came from all parts of the hall.

Murray Crane, colonel of the Old Guard, who tied up the platform committee after it thought its original compromise on the league of nations was ready for the O. K. of "reservationists" and "irreconcilables" of all shades, walked the plank as committee man from Massachusetts. John W. Weeks took his place; he is listed as nearly as old guard as Crane himself.

Cheer Penrose's Name.

Charles D. Hillis, who was secretary to President Taft and national chairman, succeeds Herbert Parsons as committee man from New York. Hillis, a perfect glass of fashion and model of form, sits at the head of the New York crowd. Despite the great heat he looks as cool as a refrigerator pipe in its swaddling.

Irish Plank, Spurned by Irish, Loses

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

The Republicans pigeonholed a declaration on the Irish question yesterday and now the American commission on Irish independence will try its luck with the Democrats at San Francisco.

An Irish plank was adopted by the subcommittee on platform, but that later was thrown away by the committee on resolutions and consequently it never reached the floor of the convention. The Irish republic leaders were so surprised, or angry, or both, that they refused to talk last night.

Two factions submitted proposals to the committee on resolutions. One of these was headed by Judge Daniel F. Cohalan of New York. He proposed that the Republicans record their "sympathy for all oppressed peoples" and "recognize the principle that the people of Ireland have the right to determine their own governmental institutions."

Ask Full Recognition.

The De Valera group, headed by Frank P. Walsh, Congressman William E. Mason, J. H. Fox of New York, and nine others, wanted the Republicans to "favor the according by our government to the elected government of the republic of Ireland, full, normal, and official recognition."

The G. O. P. subcommittee on platform, composed of thirteen members, shelved the De Valera plank promptly. The vote is reported to have been 12 to 1. Then this subcommittee recommended the Cohalan plank. This vote is said to have been 7 to 6. The text was made public and then started a fight between the two groups of the Irish.

While they were fighting the whole G. O. P. committee of fifteen on platform killed the Cohalan plank by a viva voice vote. The argument against it was that it would be inconsistent with the stand of congress against a mandate for Armenia and also with the declaration against the league of nations.

Thought Plank Had Won.

But the Irish republic group did not know until after the convention adjourned at 7:30 o'clock last night that the plank had been left out of the platform altogether. In the meantime the De Valera group was denouncing the Cohalan plank.

De Valera himself gave an interview to The Tribune, in which he said: "This declaration (the Cohalan plank) leaves the Irish question exactly where it was so far as America is concerned."

"We did not need any such declaration to know that the American people sympathized with oppressed peoples anywhere and in particular sympathized with Ireland, nor to let us know that they acknowledged the right of national self-determination of peoples. What we wanted the convention to recognize was the fact—and that fact is undeniable—that the Irish people had already exercised that right and had set up a government which under that right was entitled to recognition. It is a pledge of intended action that is needed, not a declaration of principle."

But not even the principle to which he referred was given space in the platform.

See McAduo Trick.

Others of the group charged that Judge Cohalan was interested in the candidacy of William G. McAduo and that he wanted a weak plank adopted by the Republicans so that the Democrats could gain votes by adopting a strong plank.

"There are 3,000,000 Irish voters who are thoroughly dissatisfied with the attitude of the Democrats toward Ireland," explained William H. O'Brien of Boston. "With a solid vote of 3,000,000 in this convention's platform those 3,000,000 would go to the Republican party this fall."

Tell of Offer to Morrow.

The contest between Wood and Lowden had reached an extremely heated stage by last night. The Wood managers were being accused of attempting to win over Lowden delegates by unfair means. It was reported that the Wood camp had endeavored to capture the entire Kentucky delegation by offering the vice presidential nomination to Gov. Morrow. According to the story, which was vouched for by the Lowden partisans but vigorously denied by the Wood managers, Gov. Morrow indignantly repelled the suggestion, asserting, "we don't play that kind of politics down my way."

SUPREME TEST: LOWDEN-WOOD IN FIRST VOTE

Both Gain as Race Narrows.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

With the contest narrowed down to the start to a desperate struggle between Gen. Wood and Gov. Lowden, the Republican national convention having adopted the platform without dissension, will proceed today to the nomination of the candidate for president.

On the strength of accessions made yesterday and negotiations in progress until an early hour this morning, the Lowden campaign managers are supremely confident of the defeat of Wood in the initial balloting and the nomination of the Illinois governor if short order thereafter.

Lowden Manager Reports.

Emerging from a roundup of leaders at the Congress at 2 a. m., A. T. Heri of Kentucky, floor manager of the Lowden forces, reported to his colleagues in the governor's camp that the program for the nomination of Lowden had been agreed upon, that the selection of Lowden is now a certainty, and that the ball probably will take place before the adjournment of the convention today.

The managers of the Wood campaign were no less confident that the gains of the last twenty-four hours and powerful influences exerted to bring additional blocks of delegates into line eventually will send the general over the top to an easy victory before the roll is called half a dozen times.

Wood Gains Aid Lowden.

It was apparent that Lowden had become the beneficiary of the alarm caused by the proposition the Wood movement is assuming and that the anti-Wood elements of the convention were fast lining up with the governor as the only sure means of heading off the general. One of the big developments of the night was a negotiation resulting in assurances of the delivery of a big eastern state to Lowden when ever it shall be needed.

Senator Johnson is generally regarded as practically out of the reckoning.

Those leaders who still believe that both Wood and Lowden will be eliminated look for a concerted move to nominate Senator Harding of Ohio who under such circumstances would be due to receive widespread support in the east and in Indiana and Michigan. Friends of the Ohio senator are confident he will be nominated for vice president, if not for president.

Fight Starts at 9:30.

The nominating process will begin at 9:30 o'clock this morning with the series of speeches presenting and seconding candidates. Gen. Wood will be placed in nomination first, then Johnson, then Du Pont of Delaware, then Lowden.

Herbert Hoover's name will be presented to the convention by Nathan Miller of New York.

Although nominating speeches will be restricted to ten minutes, the first two seconding speeches for each candidate to five minutes and other seconding speeches to two minutes, several hours will be consumed in oratory and demonstrations for candidates.

It will be afternoon before the balloting begins, and whether a nomination can be effected before the session adjourns is a matter of speculation. If a deadlock should develop, the convention will adjourn till tomorrow to permit the leaders to reach a compromise agreement on the ticket. In any event, it is not likely that the candidate for vice president will be nominated until tomorrow.

The Tribune Bulletin Board

on the roof of the Colonade Building

724 S. Michigan Avenue

will flash detailed vote returns today on the Presidential nomination—ballot by ballot

...false by both Mr. Gary and Frank H. Wood, generalissimo of the Wood camp.

Likes Lowden Charities.
At midnight a United States senator who is accounted one of the half dozen most important men in the convention gave it as his opinion that Gen. Wood could not expect to poll more than 250 votes at his high water mark, after which he looked at the speedy disintegration of the general's strength.

He thought that the nomination of Lowden then would be exceedingly likely. At the conference, however, this senator had been participating there had been a canvass of the strength of the candidates in each delegation, with the result that the Wood camp had been reduced from 250 to 270 votes on the first ballot, Lowden from 200 to 238, and Johnson 138.

Another of the leaders who sat in this conference till after midnight expressed the opinion that it may take several days to reach a nomination. He said he could find no weakening of the forces behind any of the candidates and it looked to him like a deadlock, which might keep the convention in session until next Monday.

Wood Against Reverses.
The Wood managers are particularly anxious that there shall be no interference between the speeches and the voting, for they are counting upon a great wave of enthusiasm for the general, heightened by anxiety to carry the election, and they are counting upon a steady forward on each ballot to victory on the fourth roll call.

On the other hand, Wood will suffer from the disadvantage of going to bat first and being subjected to the terrible pounding of his allied rivals and all the other elements determined to prevent, if possible, his nomination.

Lowden Central Figure.
Gov. Lowden is the commanding figure in the field of the opposition to Wood, and about him revolve all the plans for the elimination of the general, some of these plans contemplating the nomination of the Illinois governor and quite as many other plans contemplating his elimination also if Wood can be disposed of. Wood delegates in Indiana and several other states are scheduled to inaugurate the swing to Lowden, and the Lowden managers figure that this movement will develop a strength of more than 250 votes for the governor, after which the desire of the delegates to get aboard the band wagon will do the rest.

A fortnight ago it looked as if Lowden had the nomination within his grasp. Then the affair of the two Missouri delegates who misappropriated Lowden campaign funds gave the governor's candidacy a severe setback.

Spencer Aids Lowden.
A shrewd move to take the curse of the Missouri affair off Lowden, was consummated during the day when Senator Spencer of Missouri, a member of the senate investigating committee which disclosed the misappropriation of funds by the two delegates, consented to make one of the speeches seconding the nomination of the governor.

If both Wood and Lowden should be eliminated, Senator Johnson of California would remain the strongest candidate in delegate strength, provided his delegates stick to him, a possibility in which the senator himself does not appear to have entire faith. Johnson is probably stronger today than at any time, and yet there are few Republicans outside his own following who believe there is any possibility of the convention naming him as the party standard bearer.

A considerable number of the senator's closest friends have been of the opinion for weeks that Johnson would be willing to accept second place on the ticket with Senator Knox and at least one of them being Johnson had so assured Knox. When, however, I asked Johnson whether he would be willing to take the vice presidential nomination if Knox were named for president he replied promptly and emphatically that he would not.

Johnson Makes Claims.
Senator Johnson professed the utmost confidence that he would be nominated for president. He said that the truth of a report of a break between himself and Senator Borah which he was surprised to learn was published by the Hearst papers. He said he was in cordial—i might say, affectionate—terms with Senator Borah.

If all three of the major contenders should be eliminated, as many competent observers still believe will be the case, the convention will be confronted with the necessity of making a choice of dark horses. Much of the maneuvering of the last forty-eight hours had been by those party interests who were seeking to effect a choice outside of the trio of leading aspirants.

Dark Horses Next.
Gov. Spruill and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania figure prominently in the discussion of dark horses. Spruill is to get a tryout if the dark horse stage is ever reached in the convention, but one finds few leaders who believe the Pennsylvania governor can come within a stone's throw of victory. After Spruill Knox might receive consideration, and it is well known that Senator Penrose has long contemplated such a contingency and said careful plans for bringing about the selection of his colleague.

Charles Evans Hughes has been suggested in some influential quarters as the likeliest choice if the convention ever gets beyond the stage of considering avowed candidates. The suggestion, however, has not met with any significant response among the delegates up to date.

Shame

Yes, it's a shame to keep on paying 2 for 25c and 15c for a good cigar when you can get exactly the same tobacco, from the same high grade mild Havana leaf, in a cigar at 8c.

is reached on the roll, there is much cheering.

The noise breaks out again when Utah announces Ernest Bamberger is the new committeeman.

Senator Smoot is out. It is another effect of the "uprising" against the Smoot machine, which enabled Wilson to carry Utah and Idaho in 1916.

Mr. Hill of New York, a senator monument, arises and suggests a new rule—that if two succeeding speeches are made for any candidate they shall be limited to five minutes each; if more than two, only two minutes a speech shall be given.

"Hooray!" is the yell from the Kansas seats.

Minnesota, North Carolina, and Missouri second the suggestion, and with few straggling noes it is passed.

With more than a dozen candidates to be named, it is regarded as a grand little rule. But it does not apply to the main speeches.

Raise Cry for "Uncle Joe."
After these preliminaries Chairman Lodge announced the report of the resolutions committee would not be forthcoming for another hour.

"Cannon! Cannon!" shrieked the delegates.

Mr. Lodge read a note saying the platform was just leaving the Auditorium hotel in a fleet of taxis, bound for the Coliseum.

"Cannon! Cannon!" screamed the floor and the galleries.

"Mr. Cannon says he has a sick headache," said Lodge. "But I hear he's coming now."

Sure enough, old "Uncle Joe" is right on the spot.

The movie men flick on the lights as the sage of Danville walks to the front. The hall screams its approval.

Uncle Joe Makes a Hit.
"Uncle Joe" lifts from the table a glass half full of water and holds it to the light. He contemplates it quizzically, much after the manner of one who wonders how much wood alcohol is in the goblet. Never has "Uncle Joe" done anything more humorous.

A new plank was brought in for the chairman. The song leader tried to whoop things up, but it was too hot. No enthusiasm in the singing.

"Let's go," was the cry from the delegates.

Cheer Senator McCormick.
Finally Senator McCormick came out on the speaker's stand as the advance man of the committee. He was cheered.

The tall form of Senator Watson next appeared on the platform, and a howl of delight went up.

Chairman Lodge gave the book to the song leader and Senator Watson announced he had the report of the committee on resolutions. He said he would move its adoption at the end of the reading.

The delegates were ready to cheer. They began with the first paragraph, which referred to the control of domestic agitation.

The statement that the Democratic administration was unprepared for war and unprepared for peace brought another shout of approval. The sentiment would undertake to reduce the frequency of strikes and limit their consequences.

They were especially moved to applaud the statement that the party denies the right to strike against the government.

They approved the condemnation of the president's veto over the financial reform measure. They were delighted with the statement that the party is opposed to the government ownership of railroads. They shouted at the reaffirmation of the protective tariff and the promise to lift canal tolls from American vessels.

The demands that aliens register annually until they become naturalized, and that no alien should be granted citizenship until he had proved his Americanism, met with special approval. All the women applauded the declaration that American women should not lose their citizenship when they married an alien. They laughed at the last snap at the end of the sentence provided that said alien husband must remain a resident of the United States.

McAdoo's Attitude Is "Merely Receptive"

What McAdoo Missed
William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, attended the Republican national convention yesterday afternoon with Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank. He did not stay through the long reading of the platform, although, as a potential candidate for the Democratic nomination, it would have been profitable for him to have watched the reaction of these delegates from every state in the union to the various planks that were announced.

As former director of the railroads, under government operation, it would have interested him to see the delegates jump to their feet when government ownership and operation of railroads was denounced. He also failed to hear his father-in-law, the president, spoken of in tones that stung with contempt and bitterness in the reading of said platform by Senator Watson.

Mr. McAdoo said he was merely a spectator, not a participant. He would not comment on the action of the Republicans.

"We'll have something to say later on," he said.

At the suggestion that he was a candidate, he said:

"You know, of course, I am not a candidate, but I mean to say I am not seeking the nomination."

The McAdoos will leave today for San Francisco.

began to hiss. The young man smiled. He was Delegate Gross of Wisconsin. Chairman Lodge introduced him.

"He is a member of the committee, and he has a minority report—signed by himself," said Lodge.

The delegates howled, but Gross stood up to it.

"You want more democracy, and you want freedom of speech," he shouted. "but you do not want to give a delegate a voice in this convention."

"Hurry up! Play ball!" yelled the delegates. The offering of the one man minority was tossed out, only half a dozen voices piping up "No!" when the vote was struck.

Then came De Priest, with his declaration dealing with Negro voters in the southern states, which was sent to the resolutions committee, which already has completed its labor.

O. K. Platform with Shout.
The platform went to a vote. The eyes gazed from the floor and distracted back from the galleries. There were three or four "noes."

"The eyes seem to have it; the eyes have it, and the report is adopted," cried Lodge with a swing of the new SENATE.

Whereupon Gen. W. W. Atterbury of Pennsylvania, head of the Spruill campaign, moved adjournment until 9:30 today.

SHORT MORNING SESSION
The morning session was brief. Its one feature was the opening prayer, by Cardinal Gibbons. The venerable churchman in his flowing red robes made a striking figure as he offered the invocation. Edward Hines and D. F. Kelly served as a personal bodyguard.

Senator McCormick reported that the resolutions committee would not be ready to report for some five hours, and moved a recess until 4 o'clock. This was carried after some objection.

LODGE SPOILS MARTYR'S CROWN FOR MR. GROSS

"Fragment of Plymouth Rock" Tames Crowd.

BY EYE WITNESS.

Strange land of jumbled contrasts and grotesqueries and convolutions. How profoundly the June day episode of it all which the sweating Coliseum provided would have interested an observer from foreign shores, who, however, would probably have got it all wrong—straining too heavily things of no consequence and undervaluing the matter-of-factness and the businesslike expedition with which matters of pith and moment were pushed along.

He would have seen a speaker's platform, not commodious but ample to hold in amity a fragment from Plymouth Rock and a prince of the church of Rome. He would have seen this cardinal-archbishop stepping softly under the burden of his flashing robes and his six and eighty years, coming before the people sustained by the arm of a Puritan senator and attended by his little train of papal nobles.

A Quaint Historic Tableau.

Our foreign guest might have been a little touched to amazement by the quaint historic tableau, but in his amazement he would have missed the whole point of it, which was that the assemblage took it quite as a matter of course save that its sense of color was fleetingly stirred by the wavering pillar of flame the good old man made as he stood before them.

Then our friend would have heard, or at least seen, the prelate pray—not kneeling, however, but extracting a neatly typewritten paper from the folds of his robes and, in the course of his petition solemnly reminding with his Lord concerning times past—

"I have been, O Lord, in my day a personal and living witness of the many tremendous upheavals which threatened to rend the nation asunder; from the inauguration of Thy servant, Abraham Lincoln, even unto this day. But Thou hast saved us in the past by Thy Almighty Powers, and I have an abiding confidence that Thou wilt be graciously with us in every future emergency."

Could aught be more engaging or more fraught with trustful piety?

A Demonstration of Patience. The prayer being finished the stranger would have seen the cardinal seat himself at a deal table with a telephone on it and lean forward, with his chin resting on the hand that flashed with the emerald of his princely ducal ear, and—amid the hubbub of crowds and band music and flag-waving—a sense of responsibility.

Toward the end of the day this eagerness to have things done in the open, and this sense of responsibility that keeps honest wearers of delegated authority gravely conscious of their larger audience, showed signs of wavering under the strain of weariness and boredom and heat. And then it was magnificent to see how one gentleman, single handed and alone, beat back and beat down the spirit of defiance that is inherent in every vast throng, and how he made it sink to cover and give place to the right spirit.

Wishful to Be Martyrized. It came about thus: Present and vocal at the close of a day that represented no trivial measure of accomplishment was one of those juvenile squirts—a Mr. Gross from Wisconsin—well meaning enough, no doubt, but wishful to be martyrized. If it then became most interesting to follow the processes by which an assemblage of Americans, occupied with matters of moment, disposes of a bore. Mr. Gross read on and on, presenting what he was pleased to call "a minority report." It was, for it was solely this. As to his ideas concerning platform and policies, it is not the purpose of this article to make analysis, for the article is merely descriptive of a bit of psychology—crowd psychology.

Play-acts Defiance. It suffices to say that Mr. Gross knew his ideas to be repugnant to twenty-nine out of thirty of his colleagues and his hearers. He knew, if he knows much of anything, that he was in the wrong power, and that there exists, and functions, a duly constituted party that would welcome him and his ideas with open arms—and the acrobatic kias.

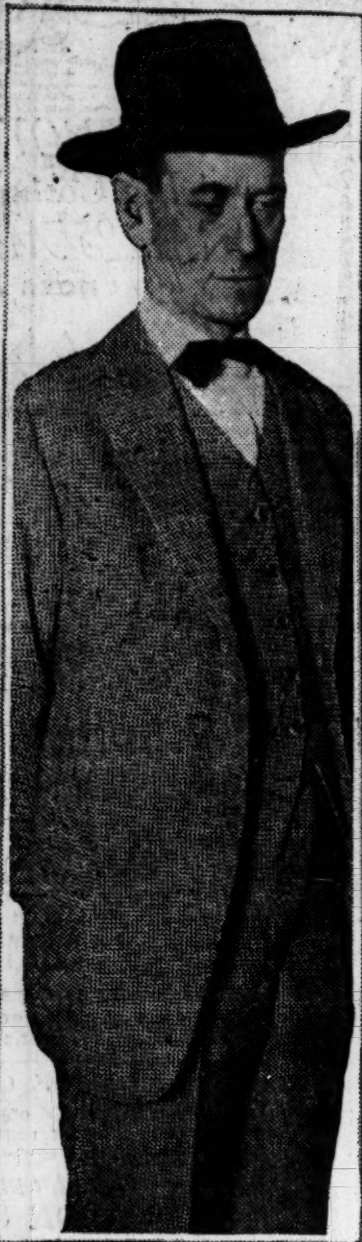

But he read on and on. Boos and catcalls attended him. The clamor gained volume and drowned his voice. He play-acted pale defiance to cries of "Sit down!" There was a lull and he resumed. Then the storm broke upon him again—and it was more the storm of agonized boredom than of outraged defiance.

PLAN TO GIVE MAYOR VOTES FOR PRESIDENT

City Hall Forces Also to Stage "Stampede."

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Mayor Thompson is likely to receive votes for president on the early ballots of the national convention. It is even possible that he will have votes cast for him on the first ballot. His name is not to be placed in formal nomination, it is understood.

That the seventeen city hall votes in the Illinois delegation will be cast for him eventually, before the nomination is made, is considered a certainty by those who are in close touch with the Thompson-Lundin tactics.

Plan Big Demonstration.

When Chairman Emmerson of the Illinois delegation is called upon to report a split vote in the state against Gov. Lowden and for Mayor Thompson it will be the signal for a demonstration at the Coliseum in which the hundreds of city hall followers who will be in the galleries and on the floor are scheduled to participate.

"It will be the biggest show of the convention and will establish a new record for convention demonstrations," a city hall man said last night.

Johnson Loses City Hall.

The report from the mayor's camp yesterday was that Senator Johnson had eliminated himself as a possible beneficiary of the anti-Lowden delegates from Chicago that are led by the mayor when he made it plain yesterday that the platform as formulated is satisfactory to him and that he has no intention of bolting the convention.

Can't Vote for Wood.

The district delegates—except those from the fifth district—that are allied with the city hall, nominally carry Wood instructions, the preferential vote having been in Gen. Wood's favor, but none of the delegates expect to vote for him, except possibly on the first ballot, inasmuch as Gen. Wood's campaign has been conducted on a set of principles that conflict materially with the Thompson platform that was defeated at Springfield and again in the Illinois delegation caucus Monday night.

"The mayor is the only man for whom we could vote for president, who really stands for what we want, so why shouldn't we vote for him," commented one of the delegates from Chicago.

WHY THOMPSON VOTES ARE NOT FOR LOWDEN

The following statement, addressed to the Republican National convention, was issued by Senator Lawrence T. Sherman last night:

"Gov. Lowden sent troops to Chicago to disperse a pacifist conference which Mayor Thompson permitted to be held.

"Gov. Lowden prevented Mayor Thompson from controlling the state organization and adopting the mayor's Socialistic platform.

"Gov. Lowden defeated Mayor Thompson for national committeeman.

"Gov. Lowden might have made peace with Mayor Thompson at any time and have obtained his support for president. He declined to treat with the mayor. Is it likely that a man would sacrifice the support of a solid delegation, lose a portion of his home state, give up in fact seventeen delegates in his fight for president and yet be a party to fraud or the purchase of delegates to the national convention?

"Illinois always has been Republican. Illinois is Republican now and will be at the November election. Without making any campaign whatsoever, with the Thompson forces against him, Lowden carried Illinois in the presidential primary by $6,000 plurality. With Thompson and his anti-war record against him, Illinois will be Republican in November by an immense majority with Lowden at the head of the ticket.

"Mayor Thompson's opposition is Gov. Lowden's power of honor. It should be a powerful element of strength to Gov. Lowden in both state and nation."

PALMER USING PULMOTOR ON WATERPOWERACT

Washington, D. C., June 10.—[Special.]—Possibility of the immediate enactment of water power legislation loomed today.

Under authority of the new merchant marine act the shipping board has decided to advertise for bids for the giant passenger liner Leviathan. This is one of the former German ships whose sale was enjoined by court action brought by William Randolph Hearst.

The power which the court held was lacking now is provided under the new act.

AN OPINION by Attorney General Palmer that there is yet time for the signing of the water power bill has given new hope to supporters of the measure. It has been supposed that the bill was killed by the "pocket veto" method.

The department of agriculture in a report based on an investigation in 60 Iowa counties says that the land boom which swept that state in 1919 has boosted farm values to levels that are not justified by their earning power.

BRUCE D. SMITH SELLS SHARE IN FATHER'S ESTATE

The one-eighth undivided interest of Bruce Donald Smith in his father's estate was sold yesterday to his mother, Mrs. Carrie Cornelia Smith, and the Smith family trustees for $12,216. The property consists of Chicago real estate.

No special significance is attached to the transfer, according to William J. Miller, attorney for the Northern Trust company, of which Mr. Smith's father, Byron L. Smith, was president.

The financial considerations involved in the recent divorce granted to Mrs. Smith were arranged out of court. The trustees of the estate, include Mr. Smith's mother, Solomon Albert Smith, Walter Byron Smith, and Harold Cornelius Smith.

DEMOCRATS OF MISSOURI OPEN PERSHING BOOM

New York, June 10.—[Special.]—A dark horse boom for Gen. John J. Pershing for the Democratic nomination was set in motion here today. It was announced that Edward E. Gottra, national Democratic committeeman from Missouri, will go to Washington to invite Gen. Pershing to attend the San Francisco convention as the guest of a Missouri delegation.

Pershing is a native of Missouri and the men behind this movement claim he is eligible for nomination as a Democrat, although he has no definite party alignment.

Democrats here said the fact that Senator Warren of Wyoming is Pershing's father-in-law has led to the impression that Pershing was a Republican, but that this impression was without foundation in fact.

DEMOCRATS GET HAMMER, KNOCK TREATY PLANK

G. O. P. Straddles Issue, Senators Aver.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., June 10.—(Special.)—Democratic senators who learned of the treaty plank in the Republican platform tonight were severely critical.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, said that the plank repudiates the Lodge reservation. Senator Walsh of Montana said it was a plain "straddle." Senator King of Utah said the Republicans had been guilty of "an abject, and cowardly surrender." Senator Pittman of Nevada interpreted the plank as a repudiation of Lodge and a complete victory for Borah and Johnson. Senator Stanley said it was an apology for the failure of Republican senators to act.

"Meat" for the Democrats.
The impression I got," Senator Hitchcock said, "is that it will give the democratic party a splendid opportunity to make the issue before the American people on ratification."

"The Republican party has been driven from the position taken by Senator Lodge in favor of ratification with certain reservations. In effect it is a declaration that the Republican party is against ratification in any form. So it repudiates the Lodge position in the senate."

"That plank is a plain straddle on the treaty issue," Senator Walsh said. "No one is able to decide what the attitude of the Republican party is on the treaty. It rather suggests a triumph of the Borah-Johnson wing."

"Surrender by the G. O. P."
Senator King said the plank meant that "the revolutionary and dictatorial attitude of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Borah have triumphed," and that they had driven the Republican party into a repudiation of any league of nations and into an abandonment of all the terms of the treaty."

"It is an abject and cowardly surrender by the Republican party to those elements in the nation that seek isolation for our country and a policy against international peace and justice," Senator King said. "No American who believes in a copy of the free nations of the world to secure lasting peace and prevent the horrors of war can support this bigoted, reactionary, and fifteenth century repudiation."

Repudiation of Lodge.
"It is a repudiation absolutely of the action taken by the majority of the Republicans of the senate in adopting the Lodge reservation," Senator Pittman said. "It is a repudiation of the leadership of Lodge. It is a complete victory for Borah and Johnson. The Republican party is against a league of nations, not in favor of such a league, and that's all there is about it."

Senator Stanley, former Democratic governor of Kentucky, said: "The league plank of the Republican platform is an apology by the Republicans for their failure to act during the past year. It is a repudiation of the Lodge program. It is a straddle in divided skirts."

"Just what do you mean by a straddle in divided skirts," the senator was asked.
"Well," he replied, "you have seen a lady riding horseback, and wearing divided skirts to conceal the straddle. That's the kind of a straddle they tried at Chicago. The old guard furnished the straddle, while the irreconcilables furnished the skirts."

Aid for Suffrage from Convention Urged by Wire
Hartford, Conn., June 10.—A telegram urging the Republican national convention in Chicago to bring all possible pressure to bear on Gov. Holcomb to secure from him a call for a special session of the Connecticut legislature to act on the suffrage question has been sent to Chairman Will Hays of the Republican national committee by the men's Republican ratification committee of this city.

DUBLIN, June 10.—A manifesto pledging support for the Dublin railway men and dockers in their refusal to handle munitions has been issued by the executive of the Irish labor party and trade union congress.
The manifesto defies the king and the British government, saying: "Not all the armies in the empire will compel us to become traitors to our own nation. We will not shrink from the consequences of that view, although the whole fabric of the commonwealth be convulsed."

the question whether the treaty plank should contain a pledge of ratification.

Drop Pledge to Ratify.
The irreconcilables yielded to the extent of waiving all demands as to phraseology, provided there was no reference to ratification or reservations. When they did this the extremists on the other side began to crumble rapidly and soon Crane found himself standing virtually alone. At this juncture Senator Lodge, who up to that time had taken little part in the deliberations, threw the full weight of his powerful influence on the side of compromise.

Mr. Lodge declared he had no pride of authorship in the senate reservations, and thought it would be most unwise for the party to take any stand that would divide the two factions and lead to serious friction during the campaign. He finally threatened to leave the convention platform and take the floor in support of the compromise. Repudiated by even the author of the senate reservations, Crane gave up the fight.

Root Wrote Compromise.
Ellihu Root, former senator and secretary of state, is credited with the phraseology of the treaty compromise. It is said that he framed it several weeks ago.

"I don't know who wrote it, and don't care much," said Senator Borah. "It satisfies us."
The treaty plank was accepted by the subcommittee by unanimous vote. Later the whole committee ratified it with only one dissenting vote, that of Edwin J. Gross of Milwaukee, who wanted a stronger declaration against the treaty.

Dodges Pledge to Ratify.
The writers of the plank made a wide detour on the question of ratification and succeeded signally in eluding the bothersome question of endorsing any reservations.
The same plank declared against the acceptance of any mandate in Europe or Asia.

EASTERN EDITORS SEAR G. O. P. FOR ITS PLANK ON THE TREATY

New York, June 11, 1:30 a. m.—(Special.)—The majority of the New York papers this morning editorially condemn the Republican platform plank on the league of nations. They say: "World-Senator Hiram Johnson has had his way about the league of nations plank. There never has been a substantial disagreement between Senator Lodge and Senator Johnson over the treaty. They have differed as to the weapon that should be employed in killing it."

Sun and Herald.—The workmanship is deplorable. The principles and the policies could scarcely be missed, but they have been greatly obscured and considerably muddled.

Times.—The compromise patched up is said to "please everybody." That means inevitably that it can please nobody who believes in honest thought and plain speech. When a plank delights Hiram Johnson on the one hand and on the other is "perfectly satisfactory" to Murray Crane, somebody is being cheated and the attempt to humbug the public is obvious. The whole thing smacks of the spirit of the Chicago stockyards and a deal in cattle.

Tribune.—The Republican platform does not preclude ratification of the treaty and covenant with reservations or eventual acceptance by the United States of membership in a league of nations. It represents a dismissal of President Wilson's dream of entangling the United States in the workings of an international superstate.

Says Minority Dictates.
Baltimore, Md., June 11, 3 a. m.—The Sun this morning says: "The convention has executed an astounding surrender on a great and vital issue; the party has actually repudiated its dominant leadership in the United States senate."

That Minority Again!
Springfield, Mass., June 11, 3 a. m.—(Special.)—The Republican this morning says of the Chicago platform: "It is the old story of a minority of desperadoes, willing to go to any extreme, terrorizing a majority by their threats. It must be admitted that Mr. Johnson, more than any other candidate, is now the 'logical' choice of the convention if the treaty plank is the position of the party on this issue."

Surrender by Majority.
Cleveland, O., June 11, 3 a. m.—(Special.)—The Plain Dealer this morning says: "The league plank is without meaning or force. Ratification is neither urged nor opposed. The reservationist majority surrenders, bag and baggage to the bitter-end minority."

MANY businesses are feeling the heel of hard times—manifested in one way or another. Orders withheld, cancellations, big intake of raw material and small outgo of finished goods, reduced profits with high overhead, and so on.

Times like these test the solidity of business, and prove that public preference is the court of last resort. The supremacy of standardized over unknown merchandise is soundly established. Truly, the business house which has invested money in sensible advertising, in addition to practical salesmanship, finds its business anchored against storms.

Advertising is simply multiplied salesmanship reaching multitudes instead of a few, reaching both the dealer and those who make up the dealer's mind—the consumer.

Our 16 years of experience in constant study of trade conditions, not as they seem in the office, but as they actually exist in fact among dealers, salesmen and consumers, enables us to help you advertise without experiment. We welcome inquiry.

CARDINAL AND 100,000 VIEW CHURCH PAGEANT

Thousands of Children March at Jubilee.

For more than three hours yesterday the children of Chicago's parochial schools—thousands upon thousands of them—passed in review before Cardinal Gibbons along Lake Shore drive in a mighty, moving procession unequalled in the city's history of religious pageantry.

It is estimated that 100,000 persons lined the boulevard as the colorful and impressive procession depicting the rise and progress of Christianity, moved from the Municipal pier, passed the reviewing stand where stood the highest prelates of the Roman Catholic Church in America, and marched on to Lincoln park where it disbanded.

The pageant climaxed the three days' celebration of the diamond jubilee of the archdiocese of Chicago and the twenty-fifth of the priesthood of the Most Rev. George W. Mundelein, archbishop of Chicago.

147 Floats in Line.

Interpersed between the snow white ranks of marching boys and girls were 147 elaborate floats representing the various incidents in the march of the Christian religion from the "Presentation of Mary in the Temple" to "1820 and the Diamond Jubilee."

The spectacle of the thousands of white clad children massed in preparation for the parade near the municipal pier at 11 o'clock moved Col. Marcus Kavanagh, the grand marshal and veteran of parades, to awe.

"Never have I seen anything like this in my life," he exclaimed. "There must be 50,000 children in line. It is the greatest event ever staged by the church in Chicago."

Cardinal Moved to Praise.

Cardinal Gibbons, inured to the splendor of religious ceremonies, turned to Archbishop Mundelein as the rows of jubilant children passed and exclaimed:

"It is truly magnificent! You are to be congratulated, as are all these splendid children for an achievement such as I rarely have had the privilege to witness."

And the rows of hot, perspiring girls and boys bore triumphant expressions as they trudged along in the burning sunlight. They seemed to be crusaders marching determinedly but happily on their quest.

As the pupils of St. Ignace school passed by the procession halted while a little girl, Dorothy Clark, leaped lightly from a pony cart, climbed to the reviewing stand, and, with a demure little speech, presented Cardinal Gibbons with a book, the gift of her schoolmates.

Panel Delegate a Spectator.

With Cardinal Gibbons in the stand was the Most Rev. John Bonzano, apostolic delegate to America. At the right hand of Archbishop Mundelein sat Eamon de Valera, president of the "Irish republic." Next to the standard bearers, one holding aloft the flag, the other the crucifix, stood Bishops P. J. Muldoon of Rockford and E. J. Dunn of Peoria.

Col. John V. Cline was Col. Kavanagh's chief of staff. His aids were Col. James Ronayne, Maj. Edward H. White, Lieut. Roger Faherty, John C. Cannon, Gen. James A. Ryan, Col. John J. Garrity, Col. Daniel Moriarty, Maj. Frank T. Quilty, Maj. William J. Swift, Capt. John J. O'Hern, Capt. Thomas O'Leary, Capt. William H. Sexton, and Capt. John A. Hartman.

Each school's float depicted some incident in the life of its patron saint. There was St. Anne Teaching the Blessed Mother; Christ Blessing Little Children; The First Easter Morn; Trial Scenes of St. Agnes; St. George and Companions; St. Ambrose and the Emperor Theodosius; Pope Celestine Commissioning St. Patrick; The Holy Grail; Brian Boru at Clontarf; St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; Joan of Arc's Triumphant Entry into Orleans; First Mass in English America; Father Marquette on the Chicago River; and scores of others.

Many Schools Take Part.

Among the larger schools represented in the parade were St. Martin, St. Agatha, St. Mel, St. John the Baptist, Providence academy, Presentation, Annunciation, St. Philip High, St. Jerome, St. Finbar, St. Patrick, St. Ignace, St. Ita, St. Helen, St. Bride, and St. Thomas Aquinas.

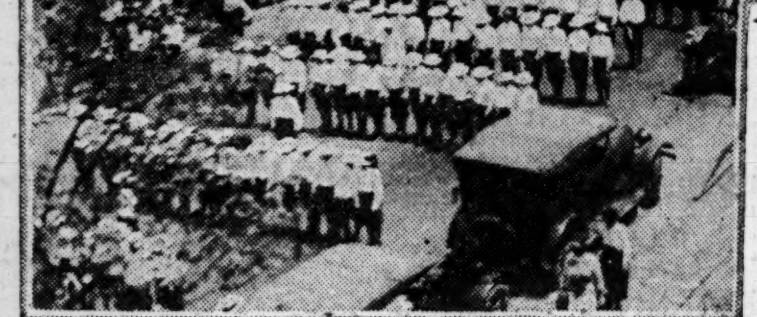

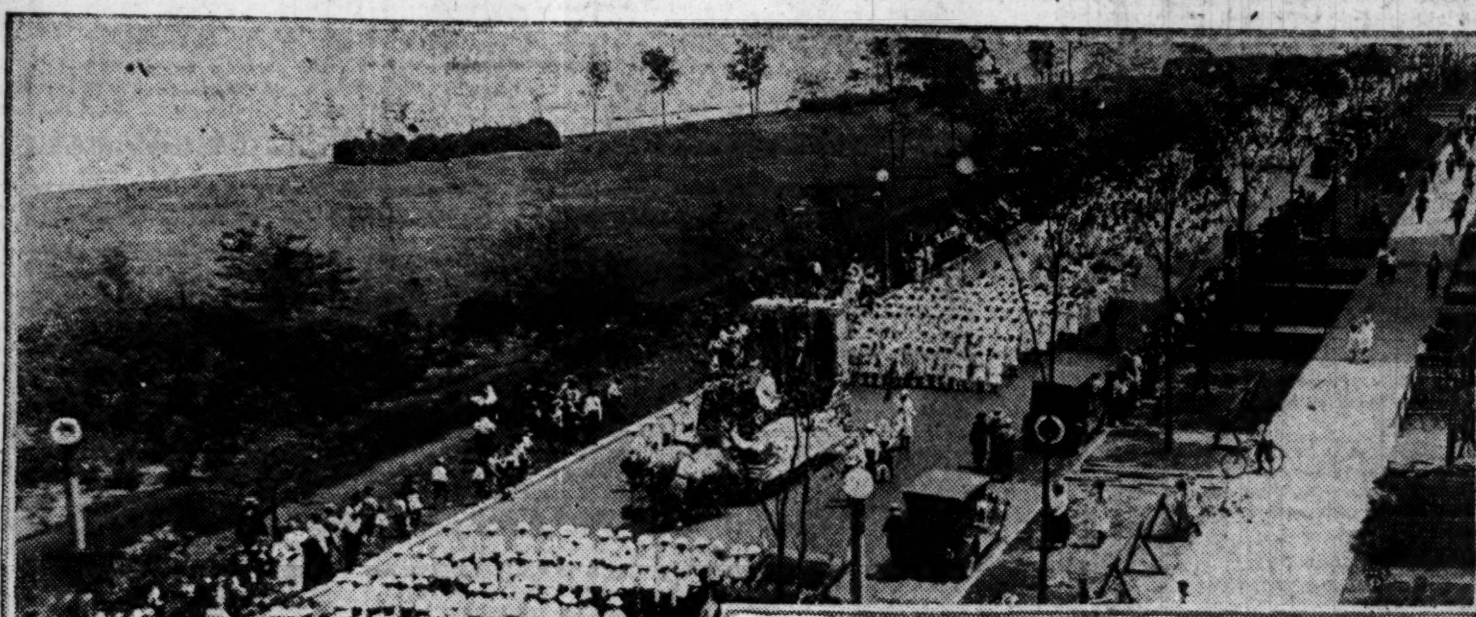

The pageant committee was headed by Mr. P. A. Rempe of St. Clement church. The judges were Edward J. P. Timmings, Francis Barry Byrne, and Harry J. Powers.

Their decisions as to the prize winning floats was not announced last night, but it was reported that the float of St. Thomas the Apostle school, "The Living Rosary," and that of the Holy Name Cathedral school, commemorating the silver jubilee of the archbishop, were among the prize winners.

GAS ATTACK VICTIM DIES.

Reviewing Twenty Centuries of Christian History

TRY TO CENTER SOUTHERN VOTE ON PRITCHARD

Southern delegates appointed a committee last night to try to reach an agreement among themselves as to the vice presidential candidate they can unite on and urge with force upon the party leaders today.

Col. Henry W. Anderson of Virginia is being urged to give up his chances in favor of Judge Jethro Pritchard of North Carolina. Judge Pritchard will be placed in nomination for the presidency and will receive a good vote from the southern states. His delegation will stick to him for several ballots, it is said, standing ready to switch to Lowden.

Realizing that Pritchard cannot be nominated for president, his friends are trying to bring him into second place on the plea of stamping out sectionalism and bringing the Republican party into better standing, possibly capturing one or two southern states. Judge Pritchard is a federal circuit judge in North Carolina, Maryland, and the Virginias. An agreement probably will be reached today.

Mr. Simpich, attached to the American commission at Berlin, says the credit is to be used to buy beef, bacon, grain, cheese, milk, oil, rice, and other foodstuffs, and will cover deliveries for twenty-two months.

This credit is in addition to a credit of $25,000,000 in 1919.

G. O. P. PLATFORM MEETS APPROVAL OF CANDIDATES

Insures Full Strength of the Party.

Comment following the adoption of the Republican national platform last night indicated that the document meets the approval of candidates and party leaders generally. Opinions follow:

MAJ. GEN. WOOD.—The platform adopted is really more than a platform; it is a solidly constructed foundation upon which to base an appeal to the intelligence of the American people. Its declarations are such that all Republican candidates can wholeheartedly accept them.

DR. NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER.—It is a matter for general Republican felicitation that this plank should be approved by Senators Borah, Johnson, and McCormick, because such approval insures the fullest strength of the Republican party in support of a constructive policy that is in strict accordance with Republican traditions and with the demands of at least 85 per cent of the American people.

SENATOR POINDEXTER.—The league plank means that the Republican party must and will stand against any surrender of the sovereign powers of this nation, bought with so much blood and fraught with so much blessing for mankind.

SENATOR W. G. HARDING.—Any declaration that commends the stand of the senate is favorable to me.

Saloon Fees Dissatisfied.

The "law and order" plank does not mention prohibition and does not refer to the Volstead enforcement act. It merely declares for impartial enforcement of all laws. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of America said:

"We were assured by Senator Smoot and other members of the resolutions committee up until and even after the committee adjourned today that there was reference in the platform to the Volstead act as one of the party achievements and a statement declaring for the enforcement of the law. Millions of voters will demand to know who is responsible for this omission."

MAKE ATLANTIC AID RAILROADS, EXPERT DEMANDS

Toledo, O., June 10.—(Special.)—The cheapest way for the nation to assist the railroads in the present crisis of immense business activity and acute shortage of rolling stock would be to provide a channel up the St. Lawrence for ocean vessels to enter the great lakes, Walter L. Ross, receiver for the Cleveland railroad, told the international joint commission here today.

Mr. Ross said the nation faces the alternative of providing the railroads with sufficient box cars to move the traffic offered or of increasing the efficiency of the box car.

It would cost $300,000,000 to build 100,000 box cars, Mr. Ross said, and the increase of 10 per cent in the efficiency of the box cars of the country would be the equivalent of building three times that number of new cars.

On export trade, Mr. Ross said, box cars could make three trips to a lake port and load into ocean vessels in the time in which they at present make a single trip to the Atlantic seaboard.

Mr. Ross said it was his experience in thirty years in railroad management that congestion always has been the cause of transportation tieups, and 90 per cent of the congestion has been in New England and Allegheny territory.

Root Reaches England on Way to The Hague

PLYMOUTH, England, June 10.—Ellhu Root of the United States, member of the commission on the construction of a permanent international court of justice, arrived here today and proceeded direct to The Hague. The first meeting of the commission will be held about June 16 in the peace palace.

Text of Platform Adopted by the Republican National Convention at the Coliseum

Here is the platform adopted last evening by the Republican national convention in session at the Coliseum:

The Republican party, assembled in representative national convention, reaffirms its unyielding devotion to the constitution of the United States and to the guarantees of civil, political, and religious liberty therein contained. It will resist all attempts to overthrow the foundations of the government or weaken the forces of its controlling principles and ideals, whether these attempts be made in the form of international policy or domestic agitation.

For seven years the national government has been controlled by the Democratic party. During that time a war of unparalleled magnitude has shaken the foundations of civilization, decimated the population of Europe, and left in its train economic misery and suffering second only to war itself.

The outstanding features of the Democratic administration have been complete unpreparedness for war and complete unpreparedness for peace.

Unpreparedness for War. Inexcusable failure to make timely preparation is the chief indictment against the Democratic administration in the conduct of the war. Had our associates protected us, both on land and sea, during the first twelve months of our participation, and furnished us to the very day of the armistice with munitions, planes, and artillery, this failure would have been punished with disaster. It directly resulted in unnecessary losses to our gallant troops, in the impement of victory itself, and in an enormous waste of public funds literally poured into the breach created by gross neglect. Today it is reflected in our huge tax burden and in the high cost of living.

Unpreparedness for Peace. Peace found the administration as unprepared for peace as was found unprepared for war. The vital needs of the country demanded for early and systematic return to a peace basis. This called for vision, leadership and intelligent planning. All three have been lacking. While the country has been left to shift for itself, the government has continued on a war time basis.

The administration has not demobilized the army of place holders. It continued a method of disbanding which was indefensible during the period of reconstruction. It has used legislation passed to meet the emergency of war to continue an arbitrary and inequitable control over the life of the people in time of peace, and to carry continuation into industrial life.

"Floundering Helplessly." Under the despot's plea of necessity or superior wisdom, executive usurpation of legislation and judicial functions still undermine our institutions. Eighteen months after the armistice, with its war-time powers unabridged, its war-time departments undischarged, its war-time army of place holders still mobilized, the administration continues to flounder helplessly.

The demonstrated incapacity of the Democratic party has destroyed public confidence, weakened the authority of government, and produced a feeling of distrust and hesitation so universal as to increase enormously the difficulties of readjustment and to delay the return to normal conditions.

Never has our nation been confronted with graver problems. The people are entitled to know in definite terms how the parties purpose solving these problems. To that end, the Republican party declares its policies and program to be as follows:

Constitutional Government. We undertake to restore to the people the constitutional government. The policies herein declared will be carried out by the federal and state governments, each acting within its constitutional powers.

Congress and Reconstruction. Despite the unconstitutional and dictatorial course of the president and the partisan obstruction of the Democratic congressional minority, the Republican majority has enacted a program of constructive legislation which, in great part, however, has been nullified by the vindictive veto of the president.

The Republican congress has met the problems presented by the administration unprepared for peace. It has repealed the greater part of the vexatious war legislation. It has enacted a transportation act, making possible the rehabilitation of the railroad system of the country, the operation of which under the present Democratic administration has been extravagant and wasteful in the highest degree. The transportation act made provision for the peaceful settlement of years of disputes, partially nullified, however, by the president's delay in appointing the wage board created by the act. This delay precipitated the outlaw railroad strike.

We stopped the flood of public treasure recklessly poured into the lap of an inept shipping board, and laid the foundations for the creation of a great merchant marine. We took from the incompetent Democratic administration the administration of the telegraph and telephone lines of the country, and returned them to private ownership. We reduced the cost of postage and increased the pay of the postal employees—the poorest paid of all public servants. We provided pensions for superannuated and retired civil servants, and for an increase in pay for soldiers and sailors. We reorganized them on a peace footing and provided for the maintenance of a powerful and efficient navy.

Passed Suffrage Amendment. The Republican congress established by law a permanent women's bureau in the department of labor. We submitted to the country the constitutional amendment for women's suffrage, and furnished twenty-nine of the thirty-five legislatures which have ratified it to date.

Legislation for the relief of the consumers of print paper, for the extension of the powers of the government under the food control act, for broadening the scope of the war risk insurance act, better provision for the dwindling number of aged veterans of the civil war, and for the better support of the maimed and injured of the great war, and for making practical the vocational rehabilitation act that has been enacted by the Republican congress.

We passed an oil leasing and public power bill to unlock the public good the great pent-up resources of the country; we have sought to check the profligacy of the administration, to realize upon the assets of the government, and to expand the revenues derived from taxation. The Republican congress has been responsible for the estimates for government expenditures of nearly $3,000,000,000 since the signing of the armistice.

"HIRAM"

We enacted a national executive budget law; we strengthened the federal reserve act, to permit banks to lend needed assistance to farmers; we authorized financial incorporations to develop export trade, and, finally, amended the rules of the senate and house, which will reform evils in procedure and guarantee more efficient and responsible government.

Agriculture. The farmer is the backbone of the nation, national greatness and economic independence demands a population distributed between industry and the farm, and sharing on equal terms of property, which is wholly dependent on the efforts of both. Neither can prosper at the expense of the other without inviting joint disaster. The crux of the present agricultural condition lies in prices, labor, and credit.

The Republican party believes that this condition can be improved by the right to form cooperative associations for marketing their products, and protection against discrimination; the scientific study of agricultural prices and farm products costs at home and abroad, with a view to reducing the frequency of abnormal fluctuations; the unencumbered publication of such reports; the authorization of association for the extension of personal credit; a national inquiry on the co-ordination of rail, water, and motor transportation with adequate facilities for receiving, handling, and marketing food; the encouragement of our export trade; and an end to unnecessary price fixing, and ill considered efforts arbitrarily to reduce prices of farm products which invariably result to the disadvantage both of producer and consumer; and the encouragement of the production and use of fertilizing material and of its extensive use.

The federal farm loan act will be administered so as to facilitate the acquisition of farm land by those desiring to become owners and proprietors, and thus minimize the evils of tenancy and to furnish such long time credit as farmers may need to finance adequately their larger and long time production operations.

Industrial Relations. There are two different conceptions of the relations of capital and labor. The one is contractual, and emphasizes the diversity of interests of employer and employee. The other is that of co-partnership in a common task.

We recognize the justice of collective bargaining as a means of promoting good will, establishing closer and more harmonious relations between employers and employees, and realizing the true ends of industrial justice.

The strike or the lockout, as a means of settling industrial disputes, is injurious to the public interest, and to the peace and stability of the community as a whole. It is a justifiable government initiative to reduce its frequency and limit its consequences.

We deny the right to strike against the government; but the rights and interests of all government employees must be safeguarded by impartial laws and tribunals.

Public Utilities. In public utilities we favor the establishment of an impartial tribunal to make an investigation of the facts and to render a decision to the end that there may be no organized interruption of service necessary to the lives and health and welfare of the people. The decisions of the tribunals should be made by the public, by a jury, and an informed public sentiment be relied on to secure their acceptance.

The tribunals, however, should be empowered to accept or reject the proposed rates of investigation, as long as the public service be interrupted.

For public utilities we favor the type of private provision for in the transportation act of 1920.

In private industries we do not advocate the principle of compulsory arbitration, but we favor impartial commissions and sincere assistance on the part of the executive departments as to mediation, conciliation, and arbitration, supplemented by that full publicity which will enlist the influence of an aroused public opinion.

We demand the exclusion from interstate commerce of the products of convict labor.

National Economy. A Republican congress reduced the estimates submitted by the administration for the fiscal year 1920 almost three billion dollars, and for the fiscal year 1921 over a billion and a quarter dollars. Greater economies could have been effected had it not been for the stubborn refusal of the administration to co-operate with congress in an economy program. The universal demand for an executive budget is a recognition of the incontrovertible fact that leadership and sincere assistance on the part of the executive departments are essential to effective economy and constructive retrenchment.

We demand that every American citizen shall enjoy the right of living by rigorous avoidance of further inflation in our government borrowing, by courageous and intelligent deflation of overextended credit and currency, by encouragement of heightened production of goods and services, by prevention of unreasonable profits, by exercise of public economy and stimulation of private thrift, and by revision of excessive and unjust taxes unsuited to peace time economy.

Profiteering. We condemn the Democratic administration for failure impartially to enforce the anti-profiteering laws enacted by the Republican congress.

Railroads. We are opposed to government ownership and operation or employed operation of the railroads. In view of the conditions prevailing in this country, the experience of the last two years, and the conclusions which may fairly be drawn from an observation of the transportation systems of other countries, it is our belief that the transportation service both for the present and future can be furnished more certainly, economically, and efficiently through private ownership and operation under proper regulation and control.

There should be no speculative profit in rendering the service of transportation, but in order to do justice to the public, the railroads should be operated on a basis of public utility, to restore railway credit, to induce future investments at a reasonable rate, and to furnish enlarged facilities to the sale and shipment of the constantly increasing development and distribution, a fair return upon actual value of the railway property used in the service of the public, and to make the service sure, and at the same time to provide constant employment to those engaged in transportation service, with fair hours and favorable working conditions as wages or compensation at least equal to those prevailing in similar lines of industry.

We endorse the transportation act of 1920 enacted by the Republican congress as a constructive legislative achievement.

Waterways. We declare it to be our policy to encourage and develop water transportation service and facilities in connection with the commerce of the United States.

Regulation of Industry and Commerce. We approve in general the existing federal legislation against monopoly and combination in restraint of trade, but since the known uncertainty of a law is the safety of all, we advocate such amendment as will provide means of determining in advance whether the proposed combination or is unlawful. The federal trade commission, under a Democratic administration, has not accomplished the purpose for which it was created. It is our policy to reorganize it so as to make it more efficient, and to give it the authority to enforce the law against combinations in restraint of trade.

We pledge the party to an immediate resumption of trade relations with every nation with which we are at peace.

International Trade and Tariff. The uncertain and unsettled condition of international relations and the normal economic and trade situation of the world, and the impossibility of forecasting accurately even the near future, preclude the enactment of a definite program to meet conditions a year hence. But the Republican party reaffirms its belief in the protection of the home market, and its vision of the tariff as soon as conditions shall make it necessary for the preservation of the home market for American labor, agriculture, and industry.

Reclamation. We favor a fixed and comprehensive policy of reclamation to increase national wealth and production. We recognize in the development of reclamation through federal action, with its increase of production and taxable wealth, a safeguard for the nation.

We commend to congress a policy to reclaim lands and the establishment of a fixed national policy of development of natural resources in relation to reclamation through the now designated government agencies.

The Service Man. We hold in imperishable remembrance the valor and the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of America who fought in the great war for human liberty, and we pledge ourselves to discharge to the fullest the obligations which a grateful nation justly should fulfill, in appreciation of the service rendered by its defenders on sea and on land.

Republicans are not ungrateful. Throughout their history they have shown their gratefulness toward the nation's defenders. Liberal legislation for the care of the disabled and infirm and their dependents has ever marked Republican policy toward the soldier and sailor of all the wars in which our country has participated. The present congress has appropriated generously for the disabled of the world war. The amounts already applied and authorized for the fiscal year 1920-21 for this purpose reached the stupendous sum of $1,150,571,878. This legislation is significant of the party's purpose in generously caring for the maimed and disabled men of the recent war.

Civil Service. We renew our repeated declaration that the civil service law shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced and extended wherever practicable. The re-creation of congress in enacting a law to provide for the retirement of the civil service, and in working out a comprehensive employment and wage policy that will guarantee equal and just treatment to the army of government workers, and in centralizing the administration of the new and progressive employment policy in the hands of the civil service commission is worthy of all praise.

Postal Service. We condemn the present administration for its destruction of the efficiency of the postal service and the telegraph and telephone service when controlled by the government, and for its failure to properly compensate employees in the postal service, and in working out a comprehensive employment and wage policy that will guarantee equal and just treatment to the army of government workers, and in centralizing the administration of the new and progressive employment policy in the hands of the civil service commission is worthy of all praise.

Woman Suffrage. We welcome women into full participation in the affairs of government and the activities of the Republican party. We earnestly hope that Republican legislatures in states that have not yet acted upon the suffrage amendment will ratify the amendment, to the end that all of the women of the nation of voting age may participate in the election of our representatives, so important to the welfare of our country.

Free Speech and Alien Agitation. We demand that every American citizen shall enjoy the right of free speech, free press, and free assembly, and the less sacred right of the qualified voter to be represented by his duly chosen representatives, but no man may advocate resistance to the law, and no man may advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Aliens within the jurisdiction of the United States are not entitled to the right of liberty of agitation directed against the government or American institutions. Every government has the power to exclude and deport those aliens who constitute a real menace to its peaceful existence. But in view of the large numbers of people affected by the immigration acts and in view of the vigorous misapplication of the departments of justice and labor, an adequate public hearing before a competent administrative tribunal should be assured to all.

Lynching. We urge congress to consider the most effective means to end lynching in this country, which continues to be a terrible blot on our American citizenship.

Law and Order. The quality of all citizens under the law has always been a policy of the Republican party. Without obedience of the law, the maintenance of order, our American institutions must perish. Our laws must be impartially enforced and speedy justice should be secured.

With regard to the sale and shipment of intoxicating beverages, the Republican party will stand for the enforcement of the constitution of the United States as it shall be declared by the Supreme court.

Public Roads and Highways. We favor liberal appropriations in cooperation with the states for the construction of highways, which will bring about a reduction of transportation costs, better marketing of farm products, improvement in rural postal delivery, as well as meet the needs of military defense.

In determining the proportion of federal aid for road construction among the states the sums lost in taxation to the respective states by the setting apart of large portions of their areas as forest reservations, shall be considered as a controlling factor.

Conservation. It is a Republican policy. It began with the passage of the reclamation act signed by President Roosevelt. The recent passage of the coal, oil, and phosphate leasing bill, the prompt liquidation of the enactment of the water power bill, fashioned in accordance with the same principle, are consistent landmarks in the development of the conservation of national resources. We denounce the refusal of the President to sign the water power bill passed after ten years of controversy. The Republican party has taken an especially honorable part in saving our national forests and in the effort to establish a national forest policy. Our present conservation question relates to our forests, and they are being renewed. The result is to raise unduly the cost of forest products to consumers and to the government, who are more than half the lumber produced in America, and in the end to create a timber famine. The federal government, the states and private interests must unite in devising means to meet the menace.

Merchant Marine. The national defense and our foreign commerce require a merchant marine of the best type of modern ship flying the American flag and manned by American seamen, owned by private capital, and operated by private energy.

We endorse the sound legislation recently enacted by the Republican congress, which will insure the promotion and maintenance of the American merchant marine.

We favor the application of the workmen's compensation acts to the merchant marine. We recommend that all ships engaged in coastwise trade and all vessels of the American merchant marine shall pass through the Panama canal without premium of toll.

through an enlightened measure of social and industrial justice. Although the federal jurisdiction over social problems is limited, they affect the welfare and interests of the nation as a whole. We pledge the Republican party to the solution of these problems through national and state legislation in accordance with the best progressive thought of the country.

Education and Health. We endorse the principle of federal aid to the states for the purposes of vocational and agricultural training. Whenever federal money is devoted to education, such education must be so directed as to awaken in the youth the spirit of America and a sense of patriotic duty to the United States.

A thorough system of physical education for all children up to the age of 19, including adequate health supervision and instruction, would remedy conditions revealed by the draft and would add to the economic and industrial strength of the nation. National leadership and stimulation will be necessary to induce the states to adopt a wise system of physical training.

The public health activities of the federal government are scattered through numerous departments and bureaus, resulting in inefficiency, duplication, and extravagance. We advocate a greater centralization of the federal functions, and in the work of the people's health, we shall be ready to help them in all proper ways, but the Republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

Child Labor. The Republican party stands for a federal child labor law and for its rigid enforcement. If the present law be found unconstitutional or ineffective, we shall seek other means to enable congress to prevent the evils of child labor.

Women in Industry. Women have special problems of employment which make necessary special study. We commend congress for the permanent establishment of the women's bureau in the United States department of labor to serve the needs of women in industry, and to be a source of information to the states and to congress.

The principle of equal pay for equal service should be applied throughout all branches of the federal government in which women are employed.

Federal aid for vocational training should take into consideration the special aptitudes and needs of women workers.

We demand federal legislation to limit the hours of employment of women engaged in intensive industry, the product of which enters into interstate commerce.

Housing. The housing shortage has not only compelled careful study of ways of stimulating building but it has brought into relief the unsatisfactory character of the housing accommodations of large numbers of the inhabitants of our cities. A nation of home-owners is the best guarantee of the maintenance of the principles of liberty and law and order upon which our government is founded. Both national and state governments should encourage in all proper ways the acquisition of homes by our citizens. The United States government should make available the valuable information on housing and town planning collected during the war. This information should be kept up to date and made currently available.

Hawaii. For Hawaii we recommend federal assistance in Americanizing and educating their greatly disproportionate population; home rule and the rehabilitation of the Hawaiian race.

Foreign Relations—The League of Nations. The foreign policy of the administration has been founded upon no principle and directed by no definite conception of our nation's rights and obligations. It has been humiliating to America and irritating to other nations, with the result that after a period of unexampled sacrifice our motives are suspected, our moral influence impaired, and our government stands discredited and friendless among the nations of the world.

We favor a liberal and generous foreign policy founded upon definite moral and political principles characterized by a clear understanding of and firm adherence to our own rights, and unfailing respect for the rights of others. We should afford full and adequate protection to the life, liberty and property and all international rights of every American citizen, and should require a proper respect for the American flag but we should be equally careful to manifest a just regard for the rights of other nations.

A scrupulous observance of our international engagements, when lawfully assumed, is essential to our own honor and self-respect, and the respect of other nations. Subject to a due regard for our international obligations, we should leave our country free to develop its civilization along lines most conducive to the welfare and happiness of the people, and to cast its influence on the side of justice and right should occasion require.

The Mexican Situation. The ineffective policy of the present administration in Mexican matters has been largely responsible for the continued loss of American lives in that country and upon our border; for the enormous loss of American and foreign property; for the lowering of American standards of morality and social relations with Mexicans; and for the bringing of American ideals of justice and national honor and political integrity into contempt and ridicule in Mexico and throughout the world.

The policy of words, futile, written protests against the acts of Mexican officials, explained the following day by the president himself as being meaningless and not intended to be considered seriously or enforced, has but added in degree to that contempt and has earned for us the sneers and jeers of Mexican bandits and added insult against our national honor and dignity.

Pledges a Firm Policy. We should not recognize any Mexican government unless it be a responsible government willing and able to give sufficient guarantees that the lives and property of American citizens are respected and protected; that wrongs will be promptly corrected and just compensation will be made for injury sustained.

The Republican party pledges itself to a consistent, firm, and effective policy toward Mexico that shall enforce respect for the American flag and that shall protect the rights of American citizens lawfully in Mexico to security of life and enjoyment of property in accordance with an established international law and our treaty rights.

The Republican party is a sincere friend of the Mexican people. In its insistence upon the maintenance of order for the protection of American citizens within its borders a great service will be rendered the Mexican people themselves, for a continuation of present conditions means disaster to their interest and patriotic aspirations.

Mandate of Armenia. We condemn President Wilson for asking congress to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. We commend the Republican senate for refusing the president's request to empower him to accept the mandate for Armenia. The acceptance of such a mandate would throw the United States into the very maelstrom of European quarrels.

According to the estimate of the Harbord commission, organized by authority of President Wilson, we would be called upon to send 50,000 American troops to Armenia, and to expend $25,000,000 in the first year, and $55,000,000 in five years. This estimate is made upon the basis that we would have to assume the burden of fighting, in case of serious trouble with the Turks or Russia, a force exceeding 200,000 would be necessary.

No more striking illustration can be given of the enormous burden of the lives of American boys or American interests.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways, but the Republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

For Association of Nations. The Republican party stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide a rule of law which shall maintain the rule of public right by the development of impartial courts, and which shall secure instant and general international action in advance whenever peace shall be threatened, so that the nations pledged to do and insist upon what is just and fair may exercise their influence and power for the preservation of war.

We believe that all this can be done without the compromise of national independence, without depriving the people of the right of self-determination, and without the sacrifice of the right to determine for themselves what is just and fair when the occasion arises, and without involving them as participants and not as spectators in a multitude of quarrels, the merits of which they are unable to judge.

The covenant signed by the president at Paris failed signally to accomplish this great purpose and contains stipulation not only intolerable for independent people but certain to produce the injustice, hostility, and controversy among nations which it proposed to prevent.

Praise Senators' Actions. That covenant repudiated to a free wholly unnecessary and unstable the time honored policy in favor of peace decreed by Washington and Jefferson and Monroe and pursued by all American administrations for more than a century, and it ignored the universal sentiment of America for generations past in favor of international law and arbitration and the hope of the future upon more equitable and negotiations.

The unfortunate insistence of the president upon having his own regard to the opinions of the majority of the senate, which shares with the trustees from Armenia, and the president's demand that the treaty be ratified without any modification, created a situation in which senators were required to vote upon their consciences after their oaths according to their judgment against the will of a mandate of a dictator in a matter where the authority and responsibility under the constitution were theirs and not his.

The senators performed their duty faithfully. We approve their courage and honor their courage and fidelity, and we pledge the coming Republican administration to such agreement with American ideals, and in accordance with the full duties of America to civilization and to the rights of the American people to exercise its judgment and its power in favor of justice and peace.

Will Reform Taxes. Pointing to its history and noting its fundamental principles, we declare the Republican party has the genius, courage, and constructive ability to end executive usurpation and restore constitutional government to fulfill our world obligations without sacrificing our national independence, to raise the national standards of education and general welfare; to reestablish a peace administration and to substitute economy and efficiency for extravagance and chaos; to reform and maintain the national credit; to reform unequal and burdensome taxes; to remove from arbitrary and capricious official control; to suppress dishonesty without denial of justice; to repeal the arrogant challenges of any class, and to maintain a government of all the people as contrasted with the government for some of the people and against the rest of the people, and finally, to allow untrammelled, and to

SHORT SESSION OF A. M. LEAVES WOMEN POUTING

But Smiles Come Back at Social Luncheons.

MRS. ARCHIBALD
ROOSEVELT.

The expectation and interest on every feminine face in the vast assembly in the Coliseum yesterday morning turned to disappointment when Chairman Lodge adjourned the session until late in the afternoon. But, accepting the situation as gracefully as possible, the women hastened to the hotels and clubs for luncheon.

In Mrs. Fredrick W. Upham's box there were a large number of prominent out of town women, including Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt and Miss Cornelia Vanderbilt of New York, Mrs. William Boyce Thompson, Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt, Miss Florence Lowden, Mrs. William G. McAdoo, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker, Mrs. Hiram Johnson, Mrs. Warren G. Harding, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. Elbert H. Gary, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. William Crocker, Mrs. T. Coleman Post, Mrs. L. A. Coolidge and Miss Coolidge, Mrs. Henry Allen, Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler and Miss Butler, Mrs. Cornelius N. Bliss, Princess Canham, Mrs. U. S. Grant, Mrs. Sidney Corman, Mrs. Lars Anderson, Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, Mrs. William Allen White, and Mrs. Leonard Wood.

Mrs. Upham looked cool and summery in a frock of blue and white dotted dimity and a blue organdy hat.

Miss Edna Dixon was there with her fiancé, Paul Walker. Miss Dixon wore a ruffled gown of black chiffon and a black satin cape.

Miss Marion Strobel looked most attractive in a grass green linen dress with a flet lace collar and straw hat of the same cool shade of green. Miss Janet Pauling wore a blue cloth dress and a brown straw hat with nasturtiums.

Mrs. E. J. Ward and Harris Brewer's frock of black taffeta was relieved by a white organdy collar. Miss Harriet Lowden wore a brown tulle dress and a brown and tan sailor hat. Mrs. Carleton Holdrege wore black satin and a black hat.

Mrs. Theodore A. Shaw Jr. wore

Hundreds of convention delegates paused in front of a window at 24 North Michigan avenue yesterday to inspect a display of "samples." The display was labeled "presidential timber," and who doesn't want to see a potential president this week?

The "samples" were real live babies, white ones, black ones, tan ones, and olive skinned ones. They were samples of what the Infant Welfare society has done during the last year in making for better, healthier babies.

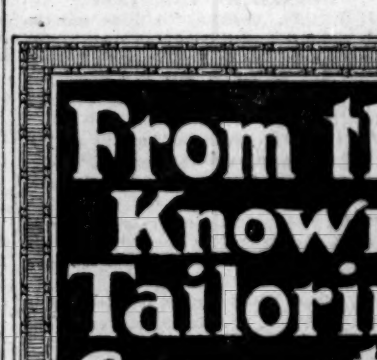

The annual baby show is being held as the principal attraction of "Baby Week," during which the society is conducting a drive to raise $40,000 with which to increase the scope of its work during the coming year.

In 1919 the society gave attention to 8,793 babies, recording the surprising low death rate of 1.9 in spite of the fact that the infants receiving its care were born in districts where the disease and suffering among children is at its maximum.

black and white dotted swiss. Mrs. Arthur Meeker displayed a gown of green and white dotted dimity and a black hat trimmed with lilacs of the valley.

Mrs. William J. Chalmers was in a blue georgette beaded in white and a large black hat, and Mrs. Ogden T. McClurg's gown was of blue and white dotted swiss with wide white organdy collar and cuffs.

The lobby of the Blackstone at luncheon time looked as if it were part of the Coliseum, there were so many people there who had been at the convention. Mrs. Laurence Armour was there, looking girlish in a blue georgette made simply with white pippings and a narrow white kid belt and a Panama hat trimmed with white roses. Mrs. Mark Walton wore a black satin frock and a brilliant crimson hat. Mrs. Barrett Wendell Jr. wore a navy blue voile dress and a purple hat.

Mrs. Horace Gray of Boston made a charming picture in a pale green child fon gown with an écoré lace collar and a leghorn hat trimmed with white wheat. Mrs. William N. Scriven's natural color pongee dress was set off by a hat of bright orange feathers. Miss Elizabeth Cudaby wore a dark blue summer silk dress and a black hat trimmed with jade feathers.

CONVENTION FLARES

Demand for tickets to the Coliseum increased tremendously when it was announced that balloting would probably begin today. The prices ranged from $10 to $25 a ticket.

Mrs. Julius Roosevelt yesterday contributed $1,000 to the National Woman's party, with the announcement that the picketers were making "a brave fight."

Three hundred policemen and 425 sergeants at arms are required to keep the peace at the Coliseum.

Speaking about convention weather, Irvin Cobb recalled that he had just received a letter from a friend in Yuma, Ariz. "It's so hot out here," it read, "that today I saw a dog chasing a jackrabbit, and they were both walking."

One of the wagers on nominees recorded yesterday was made by Capt. Robert Foster of Newark, N. J., who wagered $1,000 with L. C. Liggett, the drug magnate, that Wood would be the nominee. Liggett, taking the field.

William Howard Taft, former president, will arrive in Chicago this morning en route from the west to New York. He will remain but a few hours. His mission is not political, and he will probably not visit the Coliseum, it was announced.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt Jr. and Samuel Gompers stopped the work of the platform committee ten minutes to exchange greetings. Then Mr. Gompers told the committee what kind of a plank labor wanted.

30,000 CHILDREN DRIVEN TO WORK BY OLD HI COST

1920 Breaks Record in Child Labor Here.

More children are employed in Chicago this year than ever before, according to figures being compiled for the annual report of Clyde Brown, head of the working certificate bureau of the board of education.

Approximately 30,000 children between the ages of 14 and 16 have jobs, an increase of more than 13,000 over last year.

Old Hi Cost, combined with high wages paid juvenile workers, is blamed by local educators, who assert that 10,000 additional children will become workers during the summer vacation. The rush for jobs is already on. Many youngsters have quit school a month or two in advance to get the best positions during the last two months of their classes.

"Many families who have been able to live comfortably on the father's salary," said Supt. Mortenson yesterday, "are relieving the financial emergency by allowing the youngsters to work."

"Messenger boys are getting $16 a week. Some concerns pay even more. Many people feel the need of this extra money."

The rush of applicants for working certificates is expected about June 25, when the schools close, and arrangements have been made to open additional certificate bureaus in the Burr school, 1820 Wabasha avenue; the Hammond school, 2519 West Twenty-first place, and the old Bowen High school, Houston avenue and Ninety-third street, on June 21.

The main bureau will be maintained in the Jones school.

LABOR PARTY TO HOLD A NATIONAL CONVENTION HERE

Chicago is to have another national labor convention this summer. It developed yesterday that while Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and other national labor leaders, were trying to get to hold certain planks in the Republican platform, Chicago's labor leader, headed by John Fitzpatrick, Nockels, and others, were issuing a call for a convention of the Labor party to be held in Carmen's hall, 181 Ashland avenue and Van Buren street, from July 11 to 12.

Frank J. Esper, secretary of the party, claims there will be "at least 100 delegates from various parts of the United States" in attendance. The labor committee already has written one for the consideration of the convention, and the state ticket has been named.

The candidates so far selected and offices for which they will contend are: John Fitzpatrick, president of Chicago Federation of Labor, United States senator; John H. Walker, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, governor; Charles Dold, lieutenant governor; Frank J. Esper, secretary of state; John R. Schaefer, editor of the United Mine Workers' America, state auditor; John B.annon of Bloomington, state treasurer, and William Rodriguez, attorney general.

The county convention of the party will be held Sunday in Musicians' hall, 25 West Washington street.

Landis Fears Theft of Federal Building Dome

A plea to reduce the sentence of Stanley Klimke, former deputy collector of internal revenue, committed to prison for 10 years in the federal penitentiary for embezzling government funds, was refused yesterday by Judge Landis.

"Undoubtedly you are actuated by good motives," said the judge, turning to Klimke's friends, "but we've got to watch out or these fellows will steal the dome off the federal building."

3 SLAYERS TAKE SANITY TEST TO ELUDE GALLOWES

A fight by relatives to save Frank Campione, Nicholas Viana, and Thomas Errico, members of the Cardinella band of murderers and highway robbers, from the gallows was begun yesterday.

Application for clemency was made to the pardon board, it became known, when Drs. Herman M. Adler, state criminologist, and H. D. Singer, state alienist, examined the men in the county jail. The alienists refused to make public their finding. Dr. Adler said a report probably would be submitted to the pardon board today.

Counsel for the condemned men in Judge Oscar Hebel's court today will argue a motion for a stay of execution. Judge Hebel has indicated he will allow the motion. The execution is set for June 13.

The fate of Philip Savano, 19 year old A. E. F. veteran, for whom the state has asked the death on the gallows, will be announced in Judge Scanlon's court this morning. At a late hour, after the jury had deliberated inconclusively for five hours, the judge ordered the twelve men locked up for the night.

ROW BREWS IN FRANCE ON LOSS OF MESOPOTAMIA

PARIS, June 10.—At a session of the foreign affairs committee of the chamber of deputies today Louis Barthou charged that former Premier Clemenceau had abandoned France's right in Mesopotamia.

The discussion grew acrimonious between M. Barthou and Capt. Andre Tardieu when the latter defended M. Clemenceau.

Capt. Tardieu read a letter from Clemenceau in which the latter said: "Had I known the value of Mosul, and Mesopotamia I would never have traded them off."

"I think I know where Mosul is," said M. Clemenceau when the correspondent called on him this afternoon. "I think I know as much about Mosul as Mr. Lloyd George knew about Teschen."

"I do not mean to imply that Mr. Lloyd George knew nothing about geography," he went on, smiling. "The treaty was not a question of geography. It was a question of psychology. I do not pose as a professor of geography, but I was dealing in statecraft."

"There is one part of the world in which I am a professor of geography and that is Vendee, for which I leave tonight for a protracted holiday."

GERMANS TEACH BOLSHEVIKI FINE ART OF RETREAT

Destroy All in Their Path
Fleeing from Poles.

PARIS, June 10.—Polish troops are pursuing the retreating bolsheviks between the Dvina and Upper Berdina rivers, according to a Havas dispatch from Zurich, which says there is confirmation that the bolshevik shock troops which won local successes between May 14 and June 2 were completely destroyed by German officers. These troops, the dispatch adds, are now in orderly retreat toward Polesk, methodically destroying everything in their path.

The rest of the bolshevik divisions are reported to be fleeing in disorder, while the Polish army is approaching the lake region near the upper Dvina.

Polish Cabinet Resigns.
WARSAW, June 10.—The cabinet of Premier Skulski resigned Wednesday. The ministry assumed office Dec. 15 last.

The resignation of the cabinet is understood to have been brought about chiefly by opposition to the government's policy with regard to the creation of a buffer state between Poland and Russia. It is expected President Pilsudski will designate some one Friday to form a new ministry.

Bolshevik Army Gaining.
LONDON, June 10.—Russian bolshevik forces are advancing near Kiev and southwest of that city, according to a wireless from Moscow. The statement follows:

"Our troops operating on the right bank of the Dnieper are driving the enemy back toward the Kiev-Korosten railway. We have also advanced along the left bank of the Dnieper river. In the Tarashtcha region, southwest of Kiev, we have broken the enemy's resistance, and have occupied Biela-zhokot."

"Bolshevik cavalry has broken through the Polish lines and is operating in the neighborhood of Berdichev and Sehtomir. Fighting continues north of Gorval."

BOLSHEVIKI GAIN IN PERSIA.
PARIS, June 10.—The bolsheviks are rapidly extending their operations in Persia, according to advices received by the French foreign office.

Maheran, the capital, is in danger of falling into the hands of the bolsheviks. The Persian government is organizing resistance. The British, the advices state, have retired to Manjil, thirty miles south of Resht, under bolshevik pressure.

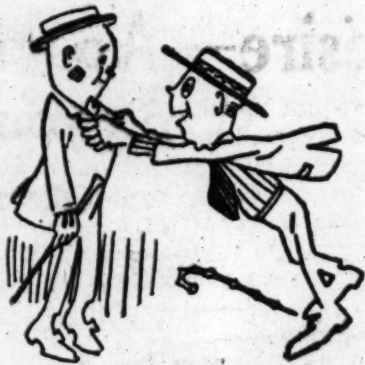

France Wants England to Sequester Soviet Gold
Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable. (Copyright 1920.)

PARIS, June 10.—The French government, acting in the name of French holders of Russian bonds, is about to urge upon the British government a formal request for the sequestration of gold which has been or may be shipped by the soviets to London and a request for formal assurance by the British government that this gold will be paid over in any commercial transactions between British subjects and Russia. The French believe that it is assured Krasine will not be able to make gold payments no one is going to supply the soviets with locomotives and other railroad material which the French think it most unwise to hand over to the soviet government, which they believe is on its last legs.

WHERE WAR IS A HABIT

1—The bolsheviks are aggressive in Persia. Tehran is in danger.
2—The Whites, under Gen. Wrangel, have been defeated by the Reds, Moscow reports.
3—The bolsheviks have opened an offensive south of Kiev. There is fighting before the city.
4—The Poles are slowly pulling back near Dvinsk.
5—The Polish cabinet is not over the proposed scheme to create a buffer state between Russia and Poland.
6—Poland has put an embargo on oil for Czechoslovakia in retaliation for offenses committed by Czechs.

No Need of Paying Exorbitant Prices for Good Shoes

The Emerson
Shoe
$10.00

All shoes in our Stores were made from leathers and materials purchased long before the high peak was reached in leather prices.

MANY years ago I decided that the best way to protect my customers against excessive profits was to stamp a fair and square retail price on the soles of my store shoes, based on the actual factory cost of labor and materials. By enlarging my production from year to year I have been able to keep this selling price remarkably low in spite of the greatly increased cost of all materials and labor.

I have always felt that it was better policy to make many shoes at a low profit than a few shoes at a larger profit.

Emerson Shoes are not marked up at one season of the year just to hold so-called "Marked Down Sales" at another season. I never ask you to pay more for a shoe than it is actually worth.

The fact that I have increased my sales TEN TIMES in the past six years is proof positive that the general public appreciates this policy. Come into our store and put this to the test. Inspect our styles and prices, and if you aren't convinced that you are getting more for your money in Emerson Shoes than in any others, I will not expect or want you to buy.

AMARO, MEXICO'S GOOD 'BAD MAN,' ON VILLA'S TRAIL

Promises to Kill Bandits with Own Hands.

BY SIDNEY M. SUTHERLAND.

Aboard Gen. Joaquin Amaro's Headquarters Car, North of Jimenez, Chihuahua, June 10.—Let me make you familiar with Gen. Joaquin Amaro—that is, let me make you acquainted with him. One doesn't get familiar with a boa constrictor! One stares at it from a safe distance.

Joaquin Amaro will be 39 years of age if he lives until next August and his parents will celebrate that occasion in the state of Zacatecas. All the world shoves a shaver. This lad is a shaver and he has shaved himself in four years from a private soldier to the command of ten thousand soldiers and rules them with a heavy granite fist. The new authorities in Mexico City have such faith in him that they have ordered dozens of generals from 20 to 60 to report to him for instructions.

A "Fighting Son of a Gun."
He is a short, slender hipped, narrow shouldered, black skinned chap with thin legs and tremendous biceps and wrists. He developed the biceps breaking the jaws of fractious horses and increased the bulk of his wrists by constant exercise with the trigger of his pistol. The front sight of his gun is useless to him since he shoots without aiming and the foresight of the gentlemen he shoots at is useless afterward.

Amaro's head is small and round and has curly purple black hair, which he combs straight back. His eyes are narrow and glimmering black. They stare at you about as the boa constrictor does through the glass of his domestic home. A mustache covers a sugar lip and an unusually large mouth. His teeth, uneven and misplaced, are snow white and his gums, which he plentifully displays on those rare occasions when he laughs, are as red as the heart of a watermelon. He has a sinister habit of running a thin crimson tongue out over his lips. Back of that dark rather receding forehead, which slants back from naturally pencilled eyebrows a manœuvre girl might envy, is without any question the most active and efficient military brain in this republic.

Gen. Amaro knows what he wants and every officer and man under him gives it to him with an alacrity astonishing in a native.

Reminds Him of Diaz.
This young man is able to inspire in me that which no other Mexican I ever knew except Porfirio Diaz inspired—respect. Bravery differs from courage in that the one is an absence of fear and the other is the triumph of will power over panic. Amaro is brave. He has killed more people with his own hand than any man in Mexico—and he grins when he thinks of Pancho Villa.

"I shall take the pleasure of killing that lad with my own hand," he told me at dinner in the car last night. "They may execute me a minute later,

KREISLER SAILS WITH $20,000 WORTH OF U. S. 'FOOD DRAFTS'

New York, June 10.—Fritz Kreisler, noted violinist, sailed today for Vienna with more than $20,000 worth of "food drafts" orders on the Hoover food relief warehouses in Vienna. He will take personal charge of the distribution of food to the needy of Austria-Hungary who belong to the intellectual classes.

Thousands of professors, doctors, musicians, writers, and persons of other professions in Austria-Hungary are said to be in dire distress because their earnings have not kept pace with the advanced cost of living and because they are too proud to make known their plight.

But I am going to kill him the instant I see him.

I dwell at this length on the personality of Joaquin Amaro, despite the shortage of white paper, because he commands what is the principal army, as armies go in Latin America, and because he is the type of officer who will get Villa if anybody does.

Upon joining his staff I learned that Gen. Escobar, to whom I had letters from Secretary of War Calles, has been placed under his orders.

Mexico's Truthful James.
Also he is the first Mexican general I ever saw who tells the truth frankly and with apparent enjoyment.

"How many men did I start with?" he echoed my question. "I left Mexico City with 3,600, and there are 6,000 up here waiting for me."

In as much as Oregon's own staff and all the newspapers said he had 7,000 with him, the truth was startling and an index of what I might expect in answer to my questions. I have listened to him on inconsequential and on important topics, and he hasn't deviated once from a veracious path.

When I explained my mission to this young fellow he instantly welcomed me to his official family, and here I am with a fairly comfortable bed and a seat at his table. He took an hour last night explaining in more or less detail the plan of his campaign, which ought to end in Mr. Villa's demise.

He told of the flying cavalry squadrons of 500 men with which he intends to sweep the railroads; of the short, fast trains of cattle cars filled with horses and men, on which he bases hopes of reaching any point on the railways which Villa may destroy, of the infantry noose he is slowly throwing out to entrap the outlaw, and of the trouble he was having in getting serviceable ammunition, equipment, clothing, and provisions.

He also told me with a ghastly laugh that he was happy to shoot any officer or man who grafts one centavo from the poor people or the merchants—who take a horse or a bushel of wheat, or a suit of clothes, or a nickel in money without giving a value which can be brought to the general's car and exchanged for gold. I heard his exhortation that night when a colonel of the old school asked him for uniforms for ten men in his company. In an inelegant but withering fashion he started in at Noah and rapidly covered all intervening ancestors of the colonel with anathema, winding up by charging the colonel's salary with ten uniforms. It seems the colonel forgot he had ordered uniforms for his outfit in Mexico City. Amaro had not—he can tell any officer exactly how many cartridges every man has—and when he last took a bath. This last does not tax his memory much.

Thirty Bullet Holes.—Investigation by the Associated Press correspondent showed five bullet holes in the wooden wall of the corner where it was shot. One bullet is reported to have struck Carranza in the leg, but he was not hurt.

President Carranza was shot at about 3:30 p.m. on May 20, 1920, at Tlaxcalantongo, Puebla. He was accompanied by his wife and two children. About 1:30 o'clock next morning he was found lying in a pool of blood.

Bonillas on Sale.—Three hundred yards of Bonillas were sold here at a price of $1.00 per yard. The Bonillas were sold by the Associated Press correspondent.

CARRANZA SLAIN, NOT A SUICIDE, INDIANS DECLARE

But Riddled by Bullets, Fired from Outside.

Tlaxcalantongo, Puebla, Mex., June 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Indian residents here, where President Carranza met his death on the morning of May 21, scout the theory that he committed suicide and declare no defense was made to the president.

No official investigation has been made here into the death of Carranza. Indians interviewed by the Associated Press correspondent pointed out the theory which they said had been assigned to the president by Gen. Rodolfo Herrero, who has been charged with responsibility for the death of the late president.

It is built of fragile material and is located far from the quarters of the soldiers whose duty it was to protect him.

Thirty Bullet Holes in Wall. Investigation by the correspondent showed five bullet holes through the wooden wall of the hut in a corner where it was said Carranza slept. One bullet is reported to have struck him in the leg, and, according to belief here, when he sat up he was hit by the other four.

Thirty bullet holes were counted in various parts of the hut. Near the door is one which is said to mark the spot where Carranza's guard was.

President Carranza reached Tlaxcalantongo at about 3:30 o'clock on the morning of May 20, according to an Indian couple, at whose home ten of his secret were quartered. About 1:30 o'clock next morning the single heard firing in the village and Carranza fled.

Bonillas on Safe Side. Three hundred yards from where Carranza slept is a hut pointed to by Indians as one occupied by Ygnacio Bonillas, former Mexican ambassador in Washington.

According to the stories told by the Indians, Bonillas remained in his hut throughout the night, and in the morning a hole in the wall to see how Carranza lay, and then escaped.

Tells How Carranza Died. Mexico City, June 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—To have defended Carranza at Tlaxcalantongo on the morning of May 21 would have been a useless sacrifice, Gen. Francisco Argueta, the former minister of war, who accompanied the late president on his flight, thus declared yesterday before the military court investigating Carranza's death.

"When we finished repelling the attack against our hut," Gen. Murguía continued, "the firing directed against Carranza's hut had ceased."

Gen. Herrero testified today for several hours before the military court, but his testimony was not made public.

CARRERA HELD IN PRISON.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Former President Estrada Cabrera is now confined in prison at Guatemala City, the state department was advised today by the American legation there. The legation said the Guatemala authorities explain this action as a precaution against possible mob attack.

BRITISH MINERS TO ASK ANOTHER WAGE INCREASE

LONDON, June 10.—Under the presidency of Robert Smilie, the Miners' federation held a conference in Memorial hall today and decided to formulate a demand for an increase in wages, as a share of the increase in the price of coal. The federation also adopted a resolution protesting against the military domination of Ireland and instructed its parliamentary committee to summon a special conference of trades unions to deal with the production and handling of munitions for Ireland and Poland.

to Chicago's REAL Sale down here in the Wholesale District

Where is the Wisensmith who said that men will not respond to special value-offerings, as women do?

There's a revelation awaiting him down here at this wholesale house.

No bargain-counter rush for sacrificed silks and satins ever outnumbered the jolly jam of long-trousered bi-peds gathering daily at South Wells and Polk Streets.

And no wonder! This is a wholesaler's sale. A clearance of fine woolens, held right in the heart of America's premier wholesale tailor shops—a reduction from prices, on which no retail overhead nor store rent was ever figured; prices which were already $10 to $15 less than those that prevail in the loop—even before they were reduced.

Um! Um! What savings! You'll never have a better opportunity to gratify and gladden your clothes dollars. You'd better hurry down while the complete selection is still intact. The end of the sale is at hand.

Save Your Old Straw Hats with S.-W. Hat-Brite

You don't need to buy a new straw hat this year—not if you can find one of your old ones about the house. New hats are expensive, and you may not be able to get a new hat in just the right shape.

Sherwin-Williams Hat-Brite will put a beautiful, permanent color on a straw hat that will make it look brand new. You can apply it in a few minutes. A brush comes with each package.

Properly applied Hat-Brite gives a high gloss even finish without showing brush marks or laps. Hat-Brite is sun-fast and water-proof and retains its beautiful finish indefinitely. A wide range of colors includes such favored shades as—

Straw, Light Green, Light Blue, Rose, Violet, Gray, Gloss Black, Liberty Red, Gold, Dark Green, Navy Blue, Seal Brown, Also Dull Black.

Don't discard an old straw hat merely because it is soiled or sun-scorched. Get a bottle of Sherwin-Williams Hat-Brite. Re-color the hat, trim it up and wear it. You can harmonize your hat with any costume.

Other Uses for Hat-Brite

While Hat-Brite Dyes are most extensively used for straw hats, they are also excellent for wicker furniture, baby carriages, basketry, and all kinds of woven reed, rattan and straw articles.

Has been successfully used on colored leather and canvas shoes, satin slippers, etc.

SHIPPING BOARD WANTS BIDS ON THE LEVIATHAN

Holds New Law, Kills Writ Hearst Got.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—(Special.)—Under the authority of the new marine act, the shipping board decided today to put the Leviathan, formerly the Hamburg-American ship, on the market again.

The ship is the largest of the thirty German ships whose sale was ordered by an injunction obtained by William Randolph Hearst.

Hearst Injunction Dead.
The new law nullified the Hearst injunction, the shipping board holds. The board will advertise for sealed bids which will be opened in the office of the board, chairman of the board, at 12:30 a. m. June 30. American only will be allowed to enter bids. The bids are satisfactory the board will reject them.

Follows Lead of Payne.
Expecting to offer the Leviathan for sale, the board has followed the lead of Secretary of the Interior, Payne, who was chairman of the shipping board when the previous effort was made to dispose of the ship.

Mr. Payne then held that it would be expensive to recondition the Leviathan at a cost of $7,000,000. Admiral Benson takes the same view. The ship is listed as an army transport.

It is for reconditioning was made in the Boston navy yard a few weeks ago.

The only offer for the Leviathan was from P. A. S. Franklin, acting for International Mercantile Marine, who then offered was $4,000,000. It is rumored that company will bid again.

TOO MANY GHOSTS.
Hearst's Acid Phosphate, however, heads the list, and other names from executive smoking—Adm.

STRIKE MAY HIT 50,000 PULLMAN CAR BUILDERS

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—Seven hundred striking car men and electrical workers at the Pullman shops here failed to return to work today. It was said 300 yardmen joined them in the demands for recognition of the Brotherhood of Carmen of America.

Harry Smith of Chicago, a national official of the carmen's union, asserted the strike, unless settled within a few days, would affect approximately 50,000 employees of the Pullman shops throughout the country.

The electricians have been granted the 17 cents an hour they demanded, but will not return to work, they say, until the carmen's union is recognized.

SHOWHOWCARUSO JEWELRY THEFT WAS DISCOVERED

East Hampton, N. Y., June 10.—The discovery of the theft of $500,000 worth of jewels from the country home of Enrico Caruso was refuted today for the benefit of detectives who are trying to solve the mystery.

Mrs. Caruso, her sister-in-law, and the servants acted and spoke, so far as they could remember, just as they did Tuesday night after the ringing of a burglar alarm led to the revelation that the jewels had disappeared. The characters in the melodrama were even dressed as they were Tuesday night.

George Fitzgerald, the chauffeur, in tears told the detectives today that, while he knew they suspected him, he would not have robbed such a good employer as Caruso, who paid him $180 a month besides keeping himself and family.

DROWNED IN BATH TUB.

The defense was MAXINE DEMPSEY, a married woman who it is reported is subjected to a question as to whether she is the mother of the child. Dempsey's husband from July to November, 1917, during which time they were separated, according to her testimony, testified to having received a total of $250.00 from her.

She testified she returned to Salt Lake City at Dempsey's behest and when she came to San Francisco together with Dempsey she practiced her calling as a fortune teller and a clairvoyant, and a woman of the underworld, according to her testimony, and once Dempsey struck her on the jaw she threatened to bring him enough money to satisfy him.

Asked on cross examination if her husband desired to get $400.00 from Dempsey out of $250.00, she expected him to receive for a fight with Georges Carpentier, she entered into a fight with him, and she testified he had made false statements in his questionnaire regarding persons dependent upon him.

cigarette satisfaction when you sign up with Camels!

YOU get to be mighty fond of Camels through their quality and refreshing flavor and mellow-mild-body. They exceed in real and true cigarette satisfaction any desire you ever had at any stage of your smoke experience. Camels are made to meet your taste and they certainly do!

Camels are so unusual in every way; they give you an entirely new idea as to how good and how delightful a cigarette can really be! They never tire your taste and never leave any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor. You are always keen for a Camel!

Quality alone would win for Camels, but besides quality, Camels blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos is a cigarette revelation! You will prefer Camels blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

All the good words we can say about Camels; all the O. K.'s of smokers throughout the nation will never pass you the line on Camels you'll get when you buy a package and make the test yourself! And, while you're at it, just compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price.

Tub Frocks Women and Misses Choose Are of Figured Voile, Moderately Priced

Lovely frocks just arrived. And they are certain to please the woman who likes a bit of the out-of-the-ordinary in her apparel. To find them so moderately priced is most important now that summer plans are on in good earnest.

Charming Styles in the Favored Navy Blue and White With Cool-looking Touches of Crisp Organdie

There is a certain smartness in these frocks with a touch of the quaint about them. The voile is a lovely quality, too, and the frocks are daintily made, as summer frocks should be. Three styles are sketched.

At the Right, a Frocks for Misses, Priced $16.50

The Girlish Frocks Sketched at Center Is $25

At the Left, a Women's and Misses' Frocks at $22.50

Fourth Floor, North and South.

Tub Skirts All White or With Embroidery in Color

These are the distinguishing features of two smart styles in tub skirts newly come, and certain of instant favor.

Both are of fine white gabardine, and show that care of detail in fashioning which makes for satisfactory service.

At $10 is an all-white tub skirt with a touch of hand-embroidery on the set-in pockets. Big pearl buttons, really decorative, fasten the novel belt.

Embroidery and Tiny Pearl Buckles on a Tub Skirt, $15

This skirt has a deep border embroidered in color, and pockets unusual in line.

Fourth Floor, North.

Girls' Hats Priced $3

A most unusual pricings and a selling specially planned for the week-end choosing.

Soft duvete tams in bright colors so youthfully debonair, and Milan hats with streamers and bands of soft ribbons. These in practical dark colors wanted.

Fifth Floor, South.

Hand-made Blouses Delightfully Cool and Summery

These blouses have all the charm and distinction which come from material of a beautiful fineness and exquisite stitches worked by skilled fingers.

And surely seldom were such lovely blouses so moderately priced.

Of Finest Batiste, Exquisitely Trimmed, Priced $5, $7.50 and $12.50

There are details of fit in these blouses which mark them unmistakably of this section. In the fine quality of the batiste one sees unusual interest in this moderate pricing.

A Blouse at $12.50 Has Fine Valenciennes Lace Trills

At $5 and $7.50 charming blouses with fine tucking and hand-hemstitching.

Fourth Floor, North.

Lovely Organdie Frocks Ribbon-sashed and Flower-garlanded in Girlish Fashion

Such are the charming frocks the schoolgirl of 6 to 12 chooses for a June party—frocks of the sheerest organdie, white or pastel-toned.

Rows and rows of tiny picotéd ruffles are on the bouffant short skirts and edging the quaint round neck and puff sleeves.

Tiny bouquets of ribbon roses at the waist and caught to the long sash-ends give a delightful touch. In Nile green and white with pastel-tinted ribbons. Sketched at the right, $22.50.

And the fact that this little frock is made in two-piece style with underbodice of firm mesh net is another important feature. In 12, 14 and 16-year sizes.

Fourth Floor, East.

$5,000, CABARET
GIRL AND COURT'S
CLERK VANISH

Politician Sought After Audit of Cash Bonds.

A cash bond of $1,500 was not to be found yesterday when the case in which it was deposited was dismissed by Judge Hugh R. Stewart in the South Clark street court. Neither was the custodian of the bond department, Mrs. G. Wood, who for six months has served as clerk of the court.

Wood, a personage in minor political circles, and a member of the William E. Thompson Tenth Ward Republican club, lived with his wife and 13-year-old daughter at 1702 Washington street.

Missing Since Wednesday.
Mrs. Wood said last night she had not seen her husband since Wednesday. Charles H. Krimble, chief of the Municipal court, retained an auditor, and they checked the South Clark street court bond department accounts yesterday. Krimble said there were other cash bonds of from $50 to $200 missing and that the shortage might reach $1,000.

Cabaret Singer Gone, Too.
Krimble said search had been begun for Wood. The police are also seeking cabaret entertainers from a café at eighteenth street and Blue Island avenue. Wood met her at a party there six months ago, it was said. She has not been seen since Tuesday.

Margaret Kovach, 11 years old, Helen Krimble, 8 years old, and her sister, Anna, 7, are at the city hospital, seriously injured as a result of a hand grenade explosion in front of their homes at 210 West Erie street yesterday morning.

Helen found the grenade in the street. Shouting with delight that she had found a "bank," she ran to her home and broke it open. The explosion was soon heard and the MARGARET KOVACH and her sister were blown there was a deafening explosion at 210 West Erie street, according to the police of the West Chicago avenue station, started an investigation to find, it is said, the grenade's owner.

Raymond Thorne Building
$100,000 California Home

Raymond C. Thorne of 6921 Oglesby avenue in Beverly Hills, a suburb of Los Angeles, superintending the building of a $100,000 home, according to dispatches. He is a son of the late William C. Thorne, former president of Montgomery Ward & Co.

His mother was married last year in Hollywood, Cal., to William Carpenter Camp, known as "Billy" Camp, divorced husband of Elita Proctor Camp, one of the famous Florida sextets.

Mr. Thorne is building his home on a three-acre tract, which is being transformed by landscape architects into one of the show places of the suburb. He eloped in 1909, while a student at Dartmouth, with Miss E. Mayne Wood of Boston. On the death of his father in 1917 his mother became sole heir of the $2,500,000 estate, which consisted mostly of personal property.

Khaki and Blue Club Suit Against Mayor Is Dropped

The petition for a writ of injunction against Mayor William Hale Thompson, filed by Mrs. Martha Michel who lived at 1001 Grand boulevard, Michel is said to own shares of the Stevens building, the Victoria theater, and other properties. Mrs. Michel alleges that her husband and a physician conspired to place her and her children in an insane asylum. After six days' confinement she was released, she alleges, when found to be sane.

home of Mrs. Florence E. Bigelow at 4053 Clarendon avenue yesterday when she heard a cracking sound and saw a huge elm, three feet in diameter, standing in front of the house, away toward the street. She increased her speed in an effort to pass before the tree fell, but it was too late.

The elm pitched forward and hit the front of her machine, crushing the hood and windshield. It also fell across the back of one of a team of horses pulling a van of the Hebard Storage and Warehouse company, breaking the horse's back.

Passengers, thinking Mrs. Nicholson had been killed, rushed to her assistance. She was able to extricate herself, however, and found she had escaped with a few scratches.

Five persons were injured early yesterday in an automobile accident at West Seventy-ninth street and South Racine avenue. One of the machines was overturned. James E. Clark and Mrs. Anna Clark, his wife, of 7001 South Winchester avenue, were taken to the Auburn hospital. Mrs. Clark's face and hands were cut, while her husband suffered injuries to his right leg.

The machine was run into by another motor car which had just emerged from behind a Seventy-ninth street car. The second machine was driven by Mrs. Martin McDonald of Blue Island, who, with her husband and Miss Edna Erickson, of 11 East One Hundred and Eighth street, the other occupants, was bruised.

Harold Johnson of 1523 West Jackson boulevard was to have celebrated his eighth birthday yesterday. But at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning Samuel Becker, of 1131 South Paulina street, dragged the boy's body from under a pile of newspapers in a hole in an alley at the rear of 1651 Van Buren street. There was a bullet wound in the abdomen.

The police traced John Shust, of 105 South Ashland avenue, to an injured thumb. As a result of his story they arrested Kenneth Israel, 1 years old, 401 South Paulina street, and his father, Harry Israel.

"We were all playin' at my house Wednesday night and I got papa's gun," said Kenneth. "It went off. It knocked Johnny's thumb and hit Harold and ran away. Harold didn't move. I got scared and picked him up and carried him down in the alley and covered him with newspapers."

'SALL RIGHT IF
CIDER + NATURE
GIVES YOU THRILL

Wine That Develops Own
"Kick" Also O. K.'d.

It's safe now to get out the old cider mill and dust off the home wine presses.

Capt. Herbert Howard, prohibition director, received a ruling yesterday from John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner at Washington, holding it is not a violation of the law to manufacture nonintoxicating cider and fruit juices for exclusive home use.

If nature permits the cider to develop a kick that's up to nature and not to the manufacturer, providing artificial ferments such as yeast or sugar are not used.

The Cider Order.

"Any person may manufacture nonintoxicating cider and fruit juices and in so doing he may take his apples or fruits to a custom mill and have them made into cider and fruit juices. The manufactured product must be used exclusively in the home and when so used the phrase nonintoxicating means nonintoxicating in fact, and not necessarily less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol.

He may also sell such cider and fruit juices so long as they contain less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol, but the purchasers cannot use or possess the same after they contain more than the legal amount of alcohol. The cider may also be sold at any time to persons having permits to make vinegar."

Major Seeks More Details.

Maj. A. V. Dalrymple after reading the report wrote to Washington for a fuller interpretation of the ruling. Lawrence Kilcourse, the major's assistant, declared the ruling did not authorize the manufacture of intoxicating wines and ciders. "Even if the manufacture of cider is allowed the holds that it can be seized if it contains more than 2 per cent of alcohol," he said.

In the meantime fifty-two barrels of alleged less than 1/2 per cent wine, which had somehow developed sufficient kick to burst out the tops of the barrels, was detained on Maj. Dalrymple's orders.

The liquor will be seized if an illegal amount of alcohol is found. The shipment came from an Ohio city.

JURY PRAISES
POLICEMAN WHO KILLED ROBBER

Sergeant Thure Lindhe of the Oak Park police was praised by a coroner's jury yesterday for his quick action in shooting to death Robert Vaughn, 3705 Vincennes avenue, a Negro whisky bandit, who is said to have broken into the Oak Park drug store of Leon E. Gilbrary in the morning.

Vaughn and a companion, Ray Epperson, who also lived at the Vincennes avenue address, attempted a joint robbery. When the police surprised them Vaughn fell under the first fire.

Epperson fled to an Oak Park elevated railroad station and boarded a train there for Chicago, while Oak Park policemen followed the train on motorcycles. They reached the Ann street station just a few minutes after police of the Desplaines street station had captured Epperson.

North Shore Clocks Advance.
Lake Forest, Winnetka, Highland Park, and other north shore suburbs have voted to follow the lead of Chicago. The churches will observe the new time schedule on Sunday.

SUBURBS FOLLOW SUIT

Aurora, Ill., June 10.—[Special.]—Aurora, Elgin, St. Charles, and other towns and cities in the Fox river valley will adopt Chicago's daylight saving schedule Sunday morning, although a large majority of the people are opposed to the plan.

In Aurora alone there are more than 1,000 people who work in Chicago, and unless the local clocks are moved ahead they will be compelled to get up at 4 a. m.

City Wage Commission
Completes Its Report

The city arbitration commission, which for two months has been dealing with the many wage disputes growing out of the 1920 budget schedules, completed its report yesterday and the council finance committee is expected to take action tomorrow. At the commission's final session recommendation was inserted that if any wage scales, other than those dealt with in the report, are increased before July 1, firemen and policemen be graded $2,100 a year instead of $2,000, which the report specified.

A HANDY MAN AROUND THE HOUSE

MAYOR SIGNS NEW DAYLIGHT LAW; IN EFFECT SUNDAY

Mayor Thompson yesterday signed the daylight saving ordinance, which becomes effective at 2 a. m. Sunday morning.

The ordinance makes the new time the official time of the city. It is the emblem of the power and the purpose of the United States of America, of its greatness and glory.

"It has witnessed the writing of our country's history and has shared all the triumphs of our national life.

"It has been the inspiration of the soldier in every war of the republic. As he followed it at Yorktown and Lund's Lane, at Chapultepec and Gettysburg, at Santiago and Chateau Thierry, it gave him courage and made him eager to press forward where it pointed the way, proud to fight for it and die for it where duty called.

"In the quiet days of peace it has been a constant stimulus to patriotic endeavor and to lofty idealism. Through song and story our people have learned to love its stars and stripes. Beneath its folds they have reaffirmed their trust in God's guidance in all the years, and have magnified their faith in the justice of the cause of human liberty, always reflected in its white and blue.

"In these troublous times of unrest and readjustment after a great war, there is more need than ever for reflection upon the past and for determination on the part of Americans to transmit unimpaired to the future its noble heritage.

"So, on Flag day—Monday, June 14—let the flag float in the breeze everywhere. It will recall to the minds and hearts of all lovers of their country the things for which it stands among the world's high ideals. It will freshen the memory of great deeds recorded in the glorious pages of United States history. It will inspire among all patriots a desire for still greater accomplishment for humanity in the years ahead."

LOWDEN PAYS TRIBUTE TO OLD GLORY IN FLAG
DAY PROCLAMATION

GENERAL observance of Flag day—next Monday—and the display of the national banner on that day are urged by Gov. Lowden in his official Flag day proclamation, issued yesterday. It follows:

"The flag is the symbol of sovereignty. Wherever it flies, on land or sea, it is the emblem of the power and the purpose of the United States of America, of its greatness and glory.

"It has witnessed the writing of our country's history and has shared all the triumphs of our national life.

"It has been the inspiration of the soldier in every war of the republic. Winds from the Plains.

"Because of the high barometric pressure to the south, we are getting the plain winds from Kansas and Missouri valley states.

"There is no indication that the wind will change in the next twenty-four hours. A heat wave, however, is nothing out of the ordinary for June."

The professor remarked that during the last Republican convention, it rained for sixty hours straight, a record for Chicago.

The List of Victims.

Heat victims reported yesterday were:
OSCAR L. MARIE, 66 years old, 1501 Diversey parkway, superintending engineer employed by the Illinois Malleable Iron company, North Paulina and Wolfram streets—Overcome while at work in the National Malleable Castings company, 2810 West Twenty-fifth street, taken to St. Anthony's hospital.

Woman Overcome on Train.
Supposedly a victim of the heat, Mrs. Lora Flag, 65, en route from California to Onoville, N. Y., was taken from a train in the La Salle street station last night to the Psychopathic hospital.

Mrs. Flag, who was accompanied by her daughter, Ruth, 22, became ill on the train. The daughter believes the heat brought on her mother's illness and consequent mental trouble.

HEAT TO LAST 24 HOURS MORE; ONE
DEAD, 4 STRICKEN

Chicago is due for another day of the heat wave which struck the city Wednesday and yesterday resulted in three heat prostrations and one death, the first of the year. The temperature reached 92 degrees during the afternoon, a record for 1920.

"As long as the wind continues from the south and southwest we can expect the heat wave to continue," declared Prof. Henry Cox, chief of the local bureau.

"Because of the high barometric pressure to the south, we are getting the plain winds from Kansas and Missouri valley states.

MAIL PLANE LOST
IN DARK CALLS
AID BY WIRELESS

The afternoon airmail plane from New York was delayed in Cleveland by a storm yesterday. It took off an hour late with three men and 1,200 pounds of mail aboard.

When the ship flew over Gary darkness had fallen. Immediately the wireless operator started a call for help. The crackling message asked that flare lights be sent up from the landing field in Maywood. The wireless operator at the Great Lakes Naval Training station picked up the message.

Five minutes later flare lights, gasoline bonfires, and searchlights were illuminating the landing field. With a mighty roar the twin motored ship flew into the radiance circled the field once, and landed. W. H. Stephens was the pilot and James Bernard was the radio operator.

Chicago Delegation Loses

The organization committee refused to concur in a resolution presented by the Chicago Federation of Labor which urged the executive council to appoint a special committee to investigate the feasibility of combining all workers in the food and catering industry into a food producing and distributing department.

Delegates from Chicago, led by Max Hayes, declared the "gigantic hotel interests" of the country had combined against union workers and must be met by a similar organization. They said this was the only "effective way to procure justice for the millions of toilers engaged in this important work."

Members of the organization committee declared combination of these workers was unnecessary and added that too many special departments would do the federation more harm than good and incur unnecessary expense.

The convention referred the matter to the executive council with authority to call a conference of interested unions and to plan a new department if all the unions so desired.

Irish Union Appeals for Larkin

A cable message from the executive committee of the Irish trade union congress was read, urging the federation to demand release of "Comrade" James Larkin, Irish labor leader, and to "use every effort to secure for Ireland the principles for which America claimed to enter the war."

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.
Have the women delegates made any difference in the convention?

The Answer.
MRS. CHARLES H. RE QUAT: "1920 Grand boulevard, housewife—Q. Must certainly. Why, don't you know that women are always uplifting?"

MRS. ERNEST PORTER, 814 Lee street, Evanston, a housewife—Hum-m—m—you should see the way the men recognize the women delegates and all other women, too. A man spoke to me today who knew I was a woman. Yes, the men know us now—actually know us.

J. G. WHITSON, Congress hotel, a business man from Livingston county—Well, the convention is a whole lot better looking, isn't it? I know the women are. That would naturally make everything better looking.

J. C. DONAHUE, Streator, Ill., a political worker—They certainly have. They have given the whole thing a good moral atmosphere.

MISS JANE PINE, River Forest, a business woman—I have noticed that the sessions are very orderly and respectful and that many of the little whims and desires of the women are readily acceded to by the men. But then, women always change everything. After all, they've had a whole lot of years ruling the country ever since Betsy Ross made our first flag.

WIPE OUT COLOR
LINE IN A. F. OF L.

AFTER A FIGHT

Negroes to Be Given Full Membership.

Montreal, Que., June 10.—The American Federation of Labor today wiped out the "color line" and warned its affiliated international unions that Negro workers must be given full and equal membership.

The action came at the end of a stormy session, which resulted in a "race war" between delegates from the southern states and the Negroes and their sympathizers.

An Enemy in Camp.
An appeal to the workers to desert the federation and align with the One Big Union was spread broadcast through the city today. It asserted that craft unionism was "doomed." The circular was the first open attack on the American Federation by the One Big Union organization in Canada.

The steel and coal strikes and the recent railroad strike, the circular said, showed the federation delegates have "specialized in cooperating with the bosses and government and altogether have railroaded and jalled the representatives of our class."

Illinois Men Back the Blacks.
Rejecting the recommendation of its organization committee, the federation threatened the autonomy of an affiliated union by requesting the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks to give the Negro freight handlers, express station employees full membership and eliminate from their constitution the words "white only."

The discussion drew the fire of the Negro delegates and of several northern states, chiefly Illinois and New York.

In the exchange of oratory in which the Negroes charged "taxation without representation" and "denial of rights" to which their opponents replied with accusations and betrayal by Negro workers in past labor disputes.

Indignation of the Negro delegates was aroused several times when speakers referred to them as "nigger freight handlers" and "nigger expressmen." To such remarks was sustained by the acting chairman, James Duncan.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation, made an unsuccessful attempt to halt the debate by explaining that arrangements were under way to get all unions to take in Negro members.

Modified and Paid.
Representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks declared they were taking care of the Negro question and giving just attention to Negro grievances. They asked the convention to leave the matter in their hands.

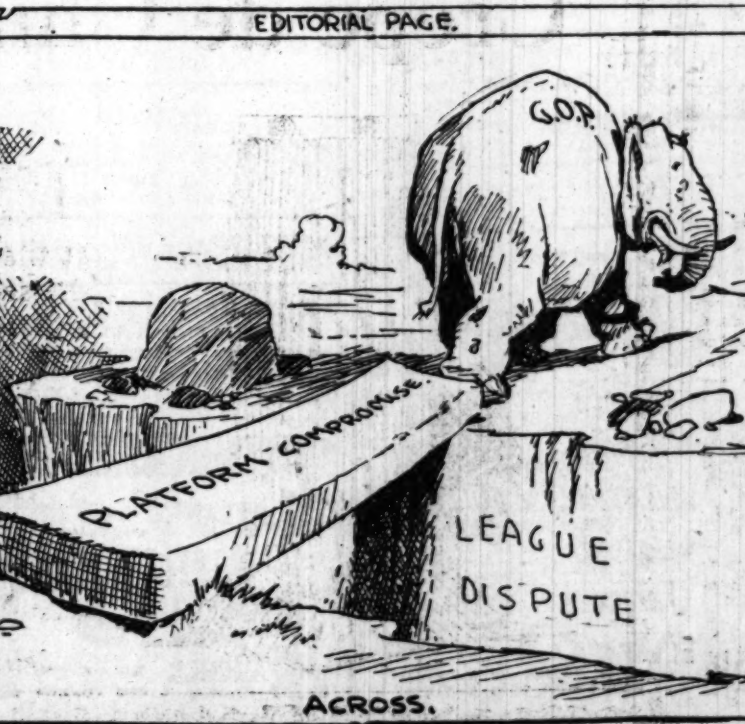

Several motions were made on the floor to demand that the railway clerks abolish the "color line" in their constitution or forfeit their charter. One of these was later modified to "request" the brotherhood to give the Negro full membership. It was accepted by an overwhelming majority.

"This, I believe, will settle the Negro problem in our organization for all time," said chairman Duncan. "Our affiliated unions must now understand that the color line is abolished."

Favor Policemen's Unions.
Other resolutions adopted by the convention provided for formation of an international policemen's union as soon as membership of local unions reaches 6,000; sending of representatives to Colorado, Utah, and Wyoming to aid the state federations in organizing work; sending of assistance to the Detroit (Mich.) central body for the purpose of organizing all nonunion workers in that city; an organization campaign among office workers and the granting of a charter to the International Union of Office Workers as soon as membership totals 10,000, and urged all affiliated international unions to send organizers out to organize the laundry workers of the country.

Exchange Charges Against Ryan May Suspend Him

New York, June 10.—[Special.]—The New York stock exchange today entered charges against Allan A. Ryan which, if sustained, under the constitution of the exchange would lead to his suspension or expulsion. The technical charge is that he "has been guilty of conduct or proceedings inconsistent with the just and equitable principles of trade."

The allegation deals directly with the Stutz corner, charging that Allan A. Ryan & Co. negotiated the corner and sought to make use of it to "create an arbitrary and fictitious price for the stock of the Stutz Motor Car Company of America."

Mr. Ryan has ten days to make a written reply. Action will be taken by the governing committee on June 23.

OLD NORTH SIDE BREWERY BOUGHT BY STONE MAKER

BY AL CHASE.

Another of Chicago's one time breweries is to be used for other purposes.
The United Breweries company's plant on the southeast corner of North avenue and McHenry street, known as the Chicago brewery, has been purchased by William D. Sager, stone manufacturer, for an indicated $25,000. Mr.
Sager will remodel the two six and seven story buildings, lot 145218, and use them for storage and manufacturing purposes.

Francis Residences Active.
Francis continues to show more activity in high class residence sales than any other suburb. Here are four made by G. L. Taylor: Melvin M. Hawley has sold his house at 1714 Hinman avenue, just north of the University drive, for $10,000. Mr. Hawley sold his house at 1000 W. 114th street, for a reported $20,000.

114th street, for a reported $20,000.
Mr. Hawley sold his house at 1000 W.
114th street, for a reported $20,000.

George Rosen has bought from John Boruck the 67x170 at the southwest corner of North Clark street and Sumner-dale avenue, for an indicated $50,000.
David Boruck for the six apartment building at 424-426 Margate terrace, lot 12118.

Charles H. Geckler has quitclaimed the lot at the southwest corner of Lawrence and Broadway, partly improved on the Lawrence tract, to Tom Geckler, owner of the Green Mill garden, on the street, for an indicated $98,000.
He closes up an involved deal in which Chambliss was a borrower from Mr.
Geckler.

Chambliss has given a trust deed to a Foreman Bros. Banking company $100,000, five years, at 6 per cent, secured by the property at 1000 W. 114th street, corner of Cottage Grove avenue and third street. He plans adding an additional or other improvements.

THE FARWELL REVIEW.
The John V. Farwell company of Chicago,
the Weekly Review of Trade, says:
The wholesale dry goods business continues in greater volume than corresponding last year. Record of buyers in market has decreased for the week, but not in comparison with clearance sales dates of corresponding week last year.
Cotton goods situation remains unchanged. Buyers in market have taken large quantities of cotton goods for immediate delivery, indicating a free movement of cotton from retail counters.
Belated reports travelers state that industrial no flux in Russia. Scarcity of goods will probably continue for several weeks. Some garments which are slated for spring 1921 production last week are being sold up and goods withdrawn from sale in the event of a strike.
Scarcity of cotton thread continues, with need for in excess of supply. Manufacturers behind in their deliveries.
"Bathing accessories are in good demand.
Collections continue excellent."

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

THIS STORE has always faithfully assumed its obligation to the public to offer merchandise of quality at the lowest possible prices.

With this policy permeating its every activity, it is inevitable that there should exist between the Store and its customers a relationship of confidence.

Our patrons know that, whatever face business conditions may assume, they can turn to this Store with an abiding assurance of protection and safety.

Dainty Silks and Laces

Make Undergarments, Moderately Priced

WOMEN have discovered how practical, as well as charming, Silk Undergarments are. Nightgowns, Envelope Chemises and Bloomers are of satin, or crepe de Chine, lace-trimmed or tailor-finished, some with Georgette crepe.

Nightgowns, $12.75; Envelope Chemises, $8.95; Bloomers, $8.95.

June Selling of Corsets

AN excellent Corset is specially priced for June Selling. For the slender or average figure, it is made of handsome pink silk broche fabric with elastic band at the waist line. It is firmly boned at the back to give the much-desired straight flat back. An exceptional value at $7.50. Other attractive Corsets specially priced for June, $5 to $15.

A Dainty Brassiere, $3.50

Styles Suited to Youth

Are Here in Delightful Wraps and Suits

KNOWING how smart must be the costume of the young miss, our representatives devote constant study to its designing and selection. The models pictured are among the newest Wraps and Suits for Summer wear.

A Charming Wrap

With particularly graceful lines, it is of peach-bloom or duvet-de-laine, with wide shawl collar and border at sides with extensive novelty stitching. Lined with fancy or plain silk, $97. At left.

New Silk Suits

Pongee makes the smartly tailored Suit in the center, with narrow belt and straight inset pockets. $40. Of Paulette is the Suit at right with deep reverse collar and girdle. Colors are black and tan. $47.50.

Store Service News

An Information Bureau, where you can find out anything in reason about Chicago, about train times, steamship sailings, and a dozen other things in which travelers are interested, has been established for the convenience of Convention Visitors—just inside the Washington Street entrance at State Street.

Sight-Seeing—Guides to take visitors through the Store are also stationed here, and trained shopping assistants will go with you, if you wish to save time and aid with your shopping.

Charming Breakfasts may be enjoyed in the Wedgwood Room—one of the daintiest of our Seventh Floor Tea Rooms. Service commences at 8:30 A. M.

Checking Facilities? Surely—at the Court entrances, North Wabash and South State, First Floor. No charge, of course.

Novelty Sports Silks Make These Attractive

New Skirts $12.75 and $15

WHITE and several lovely colors are in this collection of Women's Skirts made of novelty fibre silks. The models are attractive with button-trimmed pockets and girdles.

These prices are unusual for Skirts which are in every way so desirable, especially now when so many Summer activities demand the combination of an attractive Skirt to wear with pretty blouses and sweaters.

Sixth Floor, South, State

Silk Sweaters

Special at $25

SILK Sweaters are almost first to be thought of in planning your Summer wardrobe. The many pretty colors of which they come, the different styles and novelty weaves afford almost infinite choice.

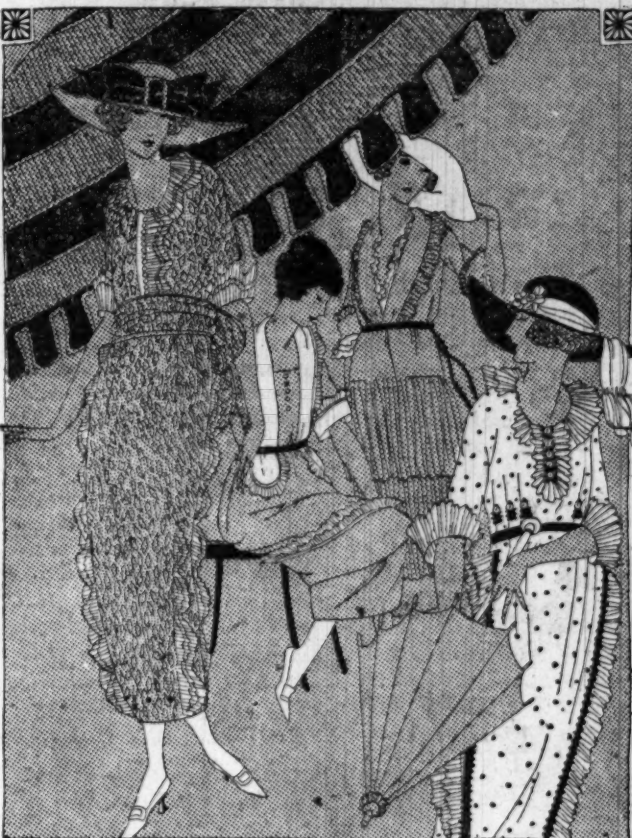

The Sweaters illustrated are from several attractive models offered at this unusually low price.

At left: Changeable black and green, with fancy weave green Tuxedo collar. Belt and cuffs of green.

At right: Fine fancy weave silk Sweater has wide sash with tassels. Several colors.

Sheer Summer Frocks Special, $20 and $25

THESE are the kind of Frocks you need every day in Summertime—in your home, on the veranda and for the little social affairs of Summer afternoons. The styles are varied and charming. All are of a quality and style for which you would expect to pay a higher price.

Of Voile and Dotted Organdie A Few Are Sketched

At $20. Conventional pattern voile makes Frock trimmed with pointed organdie plaiting. Vest trimmed with small crochet buttons. At left.

At $20. Floral pattern voile makes Frock with overskirt trimmed with narrow plaitings of organdie. Organdie fichu. Second.

Moderately Priced Dress Section, Sixth Floor, Wabash

At $25. Dark flowered voile Frock has two plaited flounces. Waist trimmed with narrow plaiting. Net and lace vest and cuffs. Third from left.

At $25. White Organdie Frock embroidered with black dots. Narrow organdie plaitings. Black picot ribbon. At right.

Sixth Floor, Middle, State

Good Blankets

PERHAPS the opening of your country home and the refitting of guest rooms brings the need of new bedding.

Here are blankets which we believe are the finest of their kind made in this country. 72x90, with white and colored borders, or white with colored satin bindings, $45.

Comforters, wool-filled, are covered with all silk on both sides with scroll stitched patterns, $35.

Second Floor, North, State

Midsummer Hats of Colored Straws

Often Wool Embroidered Yet Attractively Priced—A Charming Collection, $10 to $15

THESE Hats are a practical contribution to Summer charm. Broad and flattering as their lines so often are, there is a durability about them which makes such Hats most welcome.

The one illustrated is a vivid peacock color, white angora wool edged and accented with fuzzy white wool roses. A cool and colorful picture. $15.

Fifth Floor, Middle, State

Blouses with Filet Lace Special, $6.75

BLOUSES of sheer voile trimmed with Filet Lace are certainly unusual at this price. A number of dainty styles are all well made and of nice quality voile.

A supply of fresh tub Blouses makes it easy to be always fresh and cool looking during the Summer.

Two styles are sketched.

Sixth Floor, Middle, State

There are many interesting Summer Hats here of different straws and fabrics, priced from $5 up.
